INDIA DEPLOYS LARGEST UNIT OF FEMALE PEACEKEEPERS

A platoon comprising two officers and 25 other ranks deployed in Sudan under UN peacekeeping mission

CHALLENGING MISSION TO VIOLENCE-HIT ABYEI

The platoon of female peacekeepers is India's largest single unit of female Blue Helmets since the country deployed the first-ever all-women's contingent in Liberia in 2007. Apart from community outreach, the unit will perform extensive security-related tasks in Abyei—an area bordering South Sudan, which has seen a spurt in violence of late

MORE ROOM FOR WOMEN IN PEACEKEEPING

- India's permanent mission to the UN said it shows the country's intent to increase the number of women in peacekeeping, given their ability to connect with women and children in war zones
- India deployed its first all-women peacekeeping unit in Liberia in 2007, which inspired women there to become police officers

Bid to dial down friction with SC

Will adhere to timelines on appointments: Govt; Says will process 44 recommendations

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

SEEKING to reduce friction due to the delay in appointments to the higher judiciary, the Centre on Friday assured the Supreme Court that it will adhere to the timelines set by the latter. Of the 104 recommendations by various high courts, 44 will be processed over the weekend, Attorney General R Venkataramani said.

During the hearing, the bench expressed concern over the delay in approving 10 transfers recommended by the collegium. Pointing out that the government's role in this regard is very limited, the bench of justices S K Kaul and A S Oka said, "Keeping it pending sends a wrong signal that other factors are in play. It not only affects the administration of justice but creates an impression as if there are third party sources interfering on behalf of these judges with the government."

Describing the Centre returning 22 reiterated recommendations as a "matter of concern", the bench said, "Government may have its own views when the recommendation is made but it can't be kept on hold without sending back comments on it on the presumption that we may reiterate it. Comments can be sent to us, we will look into the same, see whether they have to be reiterated or dropped. If we reiterate the names, there is nothing in the present scenario that can prevent the appointment."

The bench revealed that some names not cleared by the collegium were also sent by the government, which in its wisdom felt that they ought to be considered. On the five other names recently recommended for elevation to the SC, the A-G sought time saying he will look into it. They are Justice Pankaj Mithal (CJ of Rajasthan HC), Justice Sanjay Karol (CJ of Patna HC), Justice P V Sanjay Kumar (CJ of Manipur HC), Justice Ahsanuddin Amanullah (judge of Patna HC) and Justice Manoj Mishra (judge of Allahabad HC). "But these recommendations should not take time... They are Chief Justices and senior judges of HCs," Justice Kaul pointed out.

Urging the A-G to ensure implementation of the ruling against the National Judicial Accountability Commission in its letter and spirit, the bench said that till the present system of appointing the judges is the law, it must be implemented. "We can't pick and choose if the judgment is line with government's view or not."

COLLEGIUM RIGOUR

Responding to the govt's claim that the SC rejects 25% names recommended by HCs, the bench said, "It shows the scrutiny we do... We drop names due to opinions of consulting judges, materials on record and govt opinion."

A colourful procession being taken out on the first day of the 86th Kannada Sahitya Sammelana in Haveri on Friday | D HEMANTH

Sammelana chief: BJP govts harming Kannada

PRAMODKUMAR VAIDYA @ Haveri

CHAIRMAN of the 86th Kannada Sahitya Sammelana, Doddarange Gowda, hit out at the double-engine BJP governments (in state and Centre) questioning their contribution to the protection and growth of Kannada language. This comes despite the language getting the classical language tag recently. Gowda accused the state government of not acting responsibly in getting Central funds for Kannada after the language got the classical status.

Gowda said, "The Union government always speaks about the advantages of the double-engine government. But how has it favoured Kannada? The tag is just an eye-wash as not much has been achieved as far as development and research on the language is concerned."

Comparing the Central grant given to other classical languages, he said that between 2017 and 2020, Rs 642 crore was allocated for the development of Sanskrit language, whereas Kannada received only Rs 3 crore as against the demand of Rs 42 crore. He said that Tamil language received Rs 23 crore in the same period. The Kannada language has received around Rs 5 crore in the last five years, Gowda added. He urged the MPs from the state to take up the issue with the Union government.

"Kannada should be promoted as a language of livelihood, employment and entrepreneurship. People in rural areas are failing to get banking services in their mother tongue as the staff refuse to help. Why should such banks exist in Karnataka then?" he questioned. P6

Delhi Police in B'luru to look for pee-gate accused

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A Delhi Police team landed in Bengaluru on Friday to look for Shankar Mishra, the man who allegedly in an inebriated state, had urinated on an elderly woman co-passenger on an Air India flight from New York to Delhi on November 26 last year.

Mishra is vice-president of the India Chapter of Wells Fargo, an American multinational financial services company headquartered in California. Wells Fargo has an office in Bellandur which Mishra often visits.

Sources said Mishra also has a relative in the city, and was last seen with his kin here. Another police team from Delhi has gone to Mumbai to question his father, Shyam Mishra, who lives there. Shankar has switched off his phone and been incommunicado.

Delhi Police registered a case against Mishra under Sections 294 (obscene act in public place), 354 (assault or criminal force to woman with intent to outrage her modesty), 509 (word, gesture or act intended to insult modesty of a woman) and 510 (misconduct in public by an inebriated person) of the IPC as well as under Aircraft Rules. Police have issued a 'Look out Circular' to prevent him from leaving the country.

Meanwhile, on Thursday, Wells Fargo sacked Mishra. "We are cooperating with law enforcement and ask that any additional inquiries be directed to them," the company said in a statement.

Muslim youth stripped, thrashed for talking to Hindu girl in DK

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Mangaluru

IN yet another case of 'moral policing', a 20-year-old Muslim youth was stripped and assaulted by a group of 10 unknown persons, when he was seen with a 17-year-old Hindu girl, whom he had befriended on Instagram. The incident took place at Subramanya in Dakshina Kannada district on Thursday.

The victim, Afidh, is a resident of Kallugundi in Sullia taluk. The girl, a student of a college in Subramanya used to meet Afidh at Subramanya bus stand and the accused had reportedly kept a watch on them. On Thursday, when the girl arrived to the bus stand and was talking to Afidh, a few persons arrived in a jeep, abducted Afidh and took him to an old building, where he was stripped and brutally assaulted. They robbed his mobile phone and purse and threatened him to keep away from Hindu girls.

Some of the attackers were wearing T-shirts with 'SSSPU', name of a college, printed on them. Based on the victim's complaint, the police have booked a case of attempt to murder against the attackers.

In another complaint, the girl's father said Afidh had forced his daughter to have a relationship with him and even molested her. Afidh has been booked under Pocso Act. Dakshina Kannada SP Rishikesh Sonawane said the attackers will be arrested soon. He said police are probing whether the attackers belong to any outfit.

Govt estimates GDP growth at 7%

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE government on Friday pegged India's GDP growth rate at 7% this fiscal compared to 8.7% in the previous year. The first advance estimates of national income released by the National Statistical Office (NSO) projected India's real GDP growth at 7% to 157.6 lakh crore in 2022-23.

This is higher than the RBI's prediction of 6.8% growth for the current financial year.

Private final consumption expenditure (PFCE) is likely to grow at 7.7% in real terms, while gross final capital formation, which shows capex investment, is likely to grow at a healthy 11.5%. The government consumption expenditure is expected to grow at a moderate 3.11% in FY23.

"The road ahead is not going to be easy so long as PFCE does not recover fully... The household sector, which accounts for 44-45% of the gross value added, saw their nominal wage growth decline to 5.7% during FY17-FY21 from 8.2% during FY12-FY16," Dr Sunil Sinha, senior director at India Ratings & Research said.

The farm sector is pegged to grow at 3.5% in FY23 compared to 3% in FY22; industry at 4.1%; but manufacturing at just 1.6%. The nominal GDP — GDP calculated at current prices— would grow at 15.4% to ₹273 lakh crore. Experts feel the upward revision in nominal GDP has given the government scope to increase fiscal deficit. "The government can increase the fiscal deficit by ₹97,080 crore, while sticking to the budget target of fiscal deficit at 6.4% of GDP," said Crisil.

NUMBER CRUNCHING

Real GDP for FY23 estimated at ₹157.60 lakh crore, as against the Provisional Estimate of GDP for FY22 of ₹147.36 lakh crore

167 of 701 CCTV cameras in 10 rly stns not working

S. LALITHA @ Bengaluru

THE security apparatus across railway stations in Bengaluru Railway Division is in a shocking state. Out of 701 CCTV cameras installed across ten major railway stations, 167 are not functioning. Among the non-functional ones are 100 hi-end cameras and 50 face recognition ones which were run on a trial basis a year ago at the busiest station, the KSR Bengaluru Railway Station.

The issue has come to the fore following the discovery of the bodies of two murdered women within a month inside railway premises -- one inside a MEMU train which reached the Sir M Visvesvaraya Terminal at Baiyappanahalli (December 8) and another earlier this week on a platform at Yesvantpur railway station (January 4).

"Due to the malfunctioning CCTV cameras, the identities of the dead women or the perpetrators could not be identified despite much effort," said a source.

The face recognition cameras were checked by officials of Railway Board and the contractor, V Link System Private Limited a year ago.

"An alleged bribe demand by a railway officer in connection with the contract and a major fallout between the partners in the firm have finally resulted in this unique security system falling apart and the cameras becoming non-functional," another source said. P4

28,000 temples await state's help to free them of encroachments

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @ Bengaluru

THE words 'Government work is God's work' are inscribed on the walls of Vidhana Soudha, the seat of power in Karnataka. But the government is not able to depute people to take up God's work. It is finding it difficult to protect thousands of temples from encroachment. Reason: The State Endowment Department is facing an acute shortage of land surveyors which is affecting the survey work of the temples. There are 34,559 temples which come under the department.

"As on November 30, 2022, survey work has been completed on properties of only 5,720 temples and 302 acres of land has been found encroached. There are 28,000 temples more where survey work has not even begun. We do not know the extent of encroachment, but it is huge," said sources from the department.

Of the temples that come under the Endowment Department, 205 are Class A (whose annual revenue is above Rs 25 lakh), 193 are Class B (annual income between Rs 5 and Rs 25 lakh) and the remaining are Class C temples (annual income less than Rs 5 lakh). The state government admits that there is encroachment in the properties belonging to state-owned temples.

Endowment Minister Shashikala Jolle told The New Indian Express that she has directed district Deputy Commissioners across the state to monitor and safeguard properties of temples by carrying out survey and subsequently undertake encroachment clearance drives. Committees have been formed at state and district levels.

Minister Jolle said the delay is due lack of surveyors in the Land Survey Department itself. "I have instructed all district authorities to take the help of private licensed surveyors. We are also planning to use digital technology to carry out the survey," she said.

Avarebele Mela kicks off, pays sweet tribute to 'Appu'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

WINTER is officially here for food lovers in Bengaluru, with the annual Avarebele Mela being hosted at National College Grounds in Basavanagudi. The ongoing festival, which will continue till January 9, is in its 23rd edition. The winter food fest was kickstarted by Sudha Murty, author and philanthropist, who suggested getting a Geographical Indication tag for avarebele, a bean synonymous with Bengaluru.

Sri Vasavi Condiments has been organising the mela on Food Street for nearly two decades, and has left no stone unturned to make this a grand one. The food fest has over 100 dishes a year, all centered on avarebele. From 100 varieties of dosas, vadas, ice-creams and savouries, avarebele lovers are spoilt for choice.

You don't just have to stick to traditional South Indian dishes to enjoy this seasonal bean. "The fest will also have experimental Chinese dishes such as chowmein and fried rice with avarebele seeds. Some other popular dishes are snacks like avarebele chikki, avarebele halwa, which are among the popular items," says Geetha Shivakumar, owner of Sri Vasavi Condiments.

This year, the organisers are also introducing a special sweet called 'Appu Special' as a tribute to the late Puneeth Rajkumar. "Appu was not just a movie star, every true Bengalurean felt like he was a family member. This avarebele is our small tribute to him," says Geetha.

The festival usually takes place on Food Street in VV Puram, however, this year, the organisers moved it to National Grounds. "We have been holding this festival for more than 20 years, and each year, the crowd has kept growing. We felt it would be wiser to move it to National Grounds," she said.

MISCHIEF

Private school receives hoax bomb threat

ENS @ Bengaluru

A private school in Basaveshwara Nagar received a hoax e-mail stating that explosives have been planted on its premises. The police suspect that a student could have sent the mail and are further investigating.

The police said an email was sent to the National Academy for Learning (NAFL) located on West of Chord Road at 8.28 pm on Thursday and the school authorities noticed the e-mail around 11.30 am, soon after which they alerted the jurisdictional Basaveshwara Nagar police. The miscreants had claimed in the e-mail that four gelatin sticks have been kept on the campus and they will explode on Friday.

"Around 950 students from nursery to Class 12 were moved to safety and a bomb detection and disposal squad and sniffer squads were pressed into service. After searching classrooms, laboratories, library, toilets, other rooms and playground, we declared that it was a hoax," DCP (West) Laxman Nimbargi said, adding that a case is registered and investigations are on to trace those who sent the email.

As the news spread, anxious parents rushed to the school to pick up their wards while the school management also sent them messages saying there was nothing to panic. The police, however, suspect that some student has sent the e-mail by creating a fake mail ID. "Exams were scheduled for a few classes on Friday and it is suspected that some student has done this to ensure that exams are not held. We are trying to trace the person who sent the mail with the help of the IP address," the police said.

It may be recalled that over 20 schools in Bengaluru received similar e-mails in April last year and the case is yet to be solved. In July, a private school in Rajarajeshwari Nagar received a similar e-mail.

Work in progress at the underpass on Old Airport Road-Suranjandas Road junction

Quarry strike hits infra works worth ₹1.7K crore

HAL underpass may not be opened by Sankranti, says Palike engineer-in-chief

MOHAMMED YACOOB @ Bengaluru

THE agitation by owners of quarries and stone crushing units has hit development works worth around Rs 1,749 crore in Bengaluru. Asphalting of 477 km of roads, underpass, flyover, junction improvement and other projects where jelly stones and concrete are required have stalled as the material is not being supplied since December 22 when the strike began.

BBMP Engineer-in-Chief BS Prahalad said, "The corporation wanted to complete the Rs 19.5 crore HAL underpass and Rs 60 crore Y Junction improvement project at Sujatha Theatre by January 15 as 90 per cent of the work was completed ten days ago. But due to the ongoing strike, the projects cannot be completed by Sankranti. There could be a delay of few more days."

He said the BBMP started asphalting of roads and repairing storm water drains under the Nagarothana grant of Rs 1,500 crore. But the works may not be completed before monsoon, he added.

"The BBMP has filed an affidavit in the High Court on road asphalting work. So far, we have covered only 60 km. Now with the agitation going on and indications of an early monsoon, we have to speed up work as soon as the agitation gets over," he said.

> BS Prahalad, BBMP Engineer-in-Chief

The BBMP started its elevated corridor project at Yelahanka at a cost of Rs 170 crore and 25 per cent of work has been completed, he said.

Nandish, Executive Engineer of Major Roads, said, "Once the Y Junction improvement work is completed, it can ease traffic in surrounding areas. Traffic entering from Tumakuru Road and Magadi Road side to Malleswaram will be drastically reduced. The impact can also be felt at Majestic."

Vinayak Sugur, Chief Engineer, BBMP Projects, said the HAL-Suranjandas Road underpass project was lined up for inauguration for Sankranti, and now because of the agitation, not a single cubic metre of concrete is available and opening up of the underpass will be delayed.

Duo shoots neighbour's dog dead for biting their pet

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

IN a shocking incident, two men have shot dead a dog for biting their dog on the outskirts of the city on Magadi Main Road. Kalaiah, the owner of the dog, an Indie breed, has filed a complaint against the duo. The incident happened on Tuesday night between 7.30 pm and 7.35 pm at Basavanapalya in Magadi taluk.

The complainant's dog is said to have bitten the dog, also an Indie breed, of one of the accused. This had led to a fight between both the men. After the intervention of persons known to both of them, the issue was settled. However, the accused wanted to teach a lesson to the dog. The main accused, Hanumanthaiah, 38, then contacted the other accused, Manjunath, 32, who is a friend and also had a country-made gun. The accused duo have then shot dead the dog. The police have registered a case under the Arms Act against both the accused.

Hanumanthaiah and Manjunath were arrested on Wednesday and have been sent to jail. The police have recovered the gun used to kill the dog.

"It is a three-year male country dog. The issue was trivial. After hearing the gunshot, I rushed out of the house and saw my dog lying in a pool of blood. I immediately called the police. Since I had a fight with the accused, I was extremely scared thinking that they might even shoot me. The police have arrested both the accused," Kalaiah told TNIE.

The main accused Hanumanthaiah, an agriculturist, stays just 350 m from the complainant's house.

"The accused also has a country dog. We did not have any issues before till the dog biting incident happened. I was told that the country-made gun belonged to Manjunath," he added. "The accused was using the gun for hunting. We are checking if he had a license to keep the gun," said the Kudur police.

BBMP chief restarts weekly inspection

ENS @ Bengaluru

BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath on Friday resumed his weekly inspection of civic works after a gap of two months.

Girinath inspected works being implemented in Malleswaram sub-division in West Zone. He directed the engineers and contractors to expedite the process of clearing silt from drains and set right the footpath on MES College Road. He also directed the forest wing of the Palike to prune trees on Malleswaram 8th Main Road.

At a Bescom work site where an underground transformer was being installed, Girinath directed the engineers to display the name of the contractor along with his mobile number and date of completion.

He also slapped a fine of Rs 1,000 on a contractor who had dumped construction debris on a footpath on HV Nanjundaiah Road. He also directed the officials to slap a notice on an apartment complex for allegedly throwing waste on a footpath.

During the two-hour long inspection, Girinath inspected development works at Azad playground, status of shoulder drains, and other infrastructure work.

'Working to improve CCTV systems'

ADDITIONAL Divisional Railway Manager, Kusuma Hariprasad, said GRP and RPF have been asked to conduct a survey to provide a report on the status of CCTVs and security at all stations. GM, SWR Zone, Sanjeev Kishore said, "We had a meeting with RPF and GRP. Security involves a lot of aspects and we are continuously working to improve them."

The casual approach of authorities towards CCTV system is violative of the Karnataka Public Safety (Measures) Enforcement Act, 2017, which had recommended penal action against organisations not following public safety measures, say sources. The Act mandates "installation of public surveillance system such as CCTVs by owners of establishments at their own cost and to provide for making available video recordings up to 30 days to the police as and when required in the investigation of specific crimes."

Otter makes pond on IISc campus its home, keeps up mystery

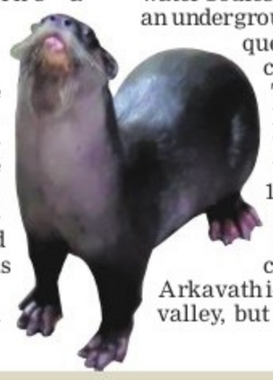
BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

THE curious case of the lone otter continues to fox researchers at India's premier institution Indian Institute of Science (IISc), Bengaluru, five years after it made its appearance. The why and how of the Smooth-Coated Otter's journey to the campus and its survival, remains a mystery.

The otter was first sighted around five years ago at the Centenary Pond on the campus. It was sighted occasionally, and had vanished temporarily, but has again popped up.

Researchers on campus are baffled as to how it came into the water body, and assert that no one introduced it. Also, this is only the second water body in Bengaluru where the Smooth-Coated Otter has been found, the other being Hessarghatta Lake.

Some researchers contemplate that it may have swum in from Sankey Tank, as the two water bodies are connected by an underground drain. Others question how it even came into Sankey Tank, because the last time otters were sighted there was around 15 years ago. Yet others wonder if it could have come from the Arkavathi-Vrishabhavathi valley, but how it survived the polluted water bodies is another question altogether.



TV Ramachandra of the Centre for Ecological Sciences, IISc, said: "No one knows how it came. It is still a puzzle and we have thought of all angles. It could have come through the drains, but the high levels of pollutants and toxins cannot be ruled out. The Centenary Pond at IISc is rainwater-fed and was created in 2009."

The otter has also caught the attention of the Karnataka forest department. Chief Conservator of Forests S S Lingaraja said there is no otter in Bengaluru's lakes as most of them have lost their connectivity, and the channels are also not well-maintained. Its sighting at IISc has raised a lot of curiosity and will be assessed in detail, he said..

PETER VIDAL

07th January: The extravagant relationship between the Sun and excitable Uranus raises new hopes and fresh possibilities. In particular, many people will be in an idealistic mood - and prepared to fight for their beliefs. This can be a good thing, but only if we all respect each other's positions.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
The strongest planetary alignments today connect signs which are alternately friendly and hyper-critical. This almost certainly means that while there is plenty of inspiration in the air, your best plan is to fall in behind other people, allowing them to take the lead.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
The pleasure principle is never far away. In fact, it's a reasonable day for a spot of extravagance, especially if you're spending other people's money, but if you do splash out it could be because you're trying to avoid the implications of certain long-term commitments.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
A loyal partner is likely to require your full and undivided attention today, so listen sympathetically and give them the best advice you can. You should also be able to make a number of important decisions - and put them into practice! Help is close at hand, and all you need to do is ask.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
You may start to get a grip on business matters, and consider your long-term future. You still seem to be shelling out on the basis of promises made some time ago, but you'll probably be able to turn the tables next week. You have to be sympathetic to a partner's predicament, though.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Modern psychologists talk about your 'shadow', meaning all those qualities, characteristics and actions which you are reluctant to acknowledge, but are no less you for all that. For once you must face up to everything that has been swept under the carpet. You might even find something there to enjoy!

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Home and family matters are in for a brief overhaul. Rather than curbing relations' basic instincts, you should set out to encourage them to establish their own limits and explore their talents to the full. They might even acquire respect for your wise words and rich experience.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
An emotional or romantic commitment should now be up for review. One thing that everyone can rely on is that your mood is very serious, and that you will take the right decisions for everybody. That, at least, is the theory. In practice there may be one or two embarrassments along the way!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You're standing at a crossroads, and there are major personal and professional choices to make. However, your perspective should be different every day, and today's questions concern cash matters and financial security. See if there's any way you can cut costs.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
You have a certain amount of responsibility for other people, mainly in terms of making sure that their interests and welfare are protected. But, if you feel like escaping to a far corner of the globe, the signs seem positive. You need a break - and soon!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You may well feel like spending as much time by yourself as you can, dreaming about the future. If you are to be especially active today, it looks very much as if it will be charitable matters which grab you. It's time to go in search of sainthood, and earn your halo.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Stability and security are gifts which you can offer your loved ones and partners at the moment. This may go against the grain, but if you act out of character, life will take a very interesting course indeed. You might even wonder why you never did it earlier!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You may press on with your treasured ambitions, even if nobody else is prepared to help. The plain truth is that the most important things in your life at the moment are those which concern you and you alone! Other people should back off and mind their own business!

Experts: Need for second booster not backed by scientific evidence

In Europe and the US, people are taking the fourth shot, says TAC chairman

Number of tests up but no spike in cases

Despite Covid testing increasing in Karnataka at both the state and city level, the number of positive cases is not rising in proportion, TAC chairman Dr MK Sudarshan said. The TAC Committee has said that so far, the Covid-19 situation seems to be in control and is not expected to spiral. The number of tests was increased from 1,500 to 5,000 at the city level, and from 5,000 to 15,000 at the state level. On the contrary, new and total active cases in the state have also seen a downhill trend. He added that despite people not following Covid appropriate behaviour (CAB), the scenario seems to be under control. The numbers have not risen exponentially in lieu of both international passengers and locals. At the previous TAC meeting, experts had estimated that the new variants will not cause a spike in the number of cases.

AKNISREE KARTHIK @ Bengaluru

AMID the rising number of Covid cases, some doctors and healthcare workers like nurses and pharmacists who have taken their booster doses have been stressing on the need for a second booster dose. However, some experts feel that due to the immunogenicity (ability to provoke an immune response) of the Indian vaccines and the current risk factor, there is no need for it.

Dr C N Manjunath, Director of Sri Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences and Research (SJICSR) who is also a member of Karnataka State's Clinical Experts Committee, said, "I have come across many healthcare workers and doctors asking me whether they take should take the fourth vaccine as they are constantly exposed to patients on a daily basis. The recent surge in Covid cases abroad has fuelled this question. For now, there is no scientific study that recommends a fourth jab. Even our virologists and epidemiologists have not insisted on taking it for now." He, however, added that a study is being taken up at SJICSR to know the effectiveness of booster dose (third jab) and the report is awaited.

FILE PIC

Dr M K Sudarshan, chairman of the Covid-19 Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) said that in countries like Europe and the US, people are taking the fourth shot. "The vaccines in these countries are majorly Messenger RNA (mRNA)-based. These differ from the vaccines used in India like Covishield, Covaxin and the heterologous Corbevax. We do not have any data on the need for the fourth jab based on the Indian vaccines". Measurable antibodies wane away six months after the vaccination. However, the memory cells will be circulating for a lifetime and in the case of infection they will secrete antibodies. Keeping the immunogenicity of Indian vaccines, the protection capability and the current risk factors involved with no spike in cases and no major hospitalisation, there is no need for a fourth dose, he added.

However, addressing the apprehension of healthcare and frontline workers who are exposed to the virus, the Union Health Ministry has sought data from AIIMS on the need for the fourth shot, Dr Sudarshan added.

"For now, the focus is on improving the coverage of booster doses which is around 21 per cent. All those who have not taken the booster shots should immediately take it," he advised.

APOLLO'S NEW TECH DETECTS PROSTATE CANCER ACCURATELY

Bengaluru: Aiming to revolutionise prostate cancer detection and treatment, Apollo Hospital Seshadripuram has introduced a novel technology, MRI Fusion TRUS guided Trans-Perineal Targeted Biopsy, that enhances the accuracy of cancer detection by 95 to 97%. Dr Manohar T, Chief of Urology at Apollo Hospital Seshadripuram, who has successfully conducted 42 procedures using MRI Fusion TRUS guided Trans-Perineal Targeted Biopsy, said, "In this procedure, one has to undergo multi-parametric MRI and contouring of the lesions which are suspected to be cancerous, and prostate size is marked via a special software pack. The image is then transferred to the special ultrasound done trans-rectally." Explaining the benefits of this latest technology, Dr Manohar T said: "Early diagnosis is critical in improving the outcomes. Conventional investigation methods miss the diagnosis by 35-45%."

Notice to govt over police body

ENS @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka HC on Friday issued a notice to the state government on a PIL filed over the non-functioning of the State Police Complaint Authority (SPCA). A division bench of Chief Justice Prasanna B Varale and Justice Ashok S Kinagi issued the notice after hearing the petition filed by advocate Sudha Katwa.

According to the petitioner, the SPCA was constituted with the objective of improving the standards of police administration and fixing accountability by looking into complaints against police misconduct including cases of serious misconduct, incidents involving death, grievous hurt or rape in police custody. The SPCA is also required to oversee the functioning of the District Police Complainant Authority and take remedial action.

It was stated that the term of the chairperson expired on August 2022, the term of a civil service member expired on May 2022 and the term of a civil society member expired in December 2020. Therefore, due to the non-appointment of the chairperson and two members, no complaints are being heard or meetings being held. It would frustrate the constitutional and legal rights of citizens and goes against the mandate of the Supreme Court.

Advocate S Umapathi, representing the petitioner, argued that the time-bound appointments of statutory posts entrusted with improving the police machinery should not be left vacant for long. Further, he argued that each stage of the process of appointment should have been accomplished within a reasonable time limit. This would result in an ideal situation of the continuance of office and citizens would be ensured speedy justice. Therefore, it is highly essential to give directions to the state to commence and finalise the process of appointment, he said.

Chain-snatchers target 4 women in four hours

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

TWO-bike borne miscreants went on a chain-snatching spree within a span of four hours in the city's North division, on Friday morning. Women were the target in all four incidents.

Two incidents were reported in Bagalagunte police station limits, while one each was reported in Yeshwantpur and Peenya stations. Police said the miscreants first struck at Sarvamangala in MEI Layout, around 5.30am, and snatched a woman's 60gm gold chain, before striking Priyalakshmi at Ramaiah Layout, around 7.30am, and escaping with an 80-gram gold chain.

Both incidents took place in Bagalagunte station limits. Around 8am, miscreants snatched a gold chain weighing 45gm from one Lalithamma at Chokkasandra, in Peenya police station limits, before robbing Jayaprabha of her 50gm chain near JP Park in Yashwantpur police limits, around 9am.

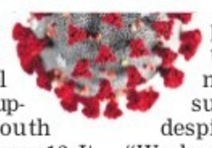
Police said soon after the first incident, picket points were set up and vehicles stopped on suspicion, but the miscreants managed to escape. "It is clear that two persons are involved in all four cases, and we are trying to gather information about the suspects, based on available clues," an officer said.

TAC raises concern over self-test kits, missing results

NAMRATA SINDWANI @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) has raised concern over the use of self-test kits for diagnosing Covid-19 by the public, who do not upload results on the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) website.

The TAC stated that self-test kit results not being uploaded caused several positive cases to remain unknown. The issue was raised at the 192nd closed door TAC meeting held on Wednesday to discuss Covid protocol to be followed at the upcoming National Youth Festival, starting January 12. It will be inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi.



TAC Chairman Dr MK Sudarshan told TNIE that the committee raised issues related to self-test kits, where certain positive cases were possibly not being reported. He said since there is no regulation or record of people buying and using test kits, people tend not to upload their results on the ICMR portal, despite it being mandatory. "We have raised it with the health department and drug control department, to introduce regulations for self-test kits to ensure results are reported," a member said.

On regulations for buying and using the kits, PS Bhagavan, retired deputy director, Pharmacy Council of India, said: "Pharmacists must train customers for using test kits in a methodical way. If it is not used properly, test results will not be accurate, leading to false diagnosis. Pharmacies in India work as grocery shops and several do not have trained professionals to educate customers."

Bhagavan said people should not rely solely on self-test kits, but should also get a thorough RT-PCR done. Self-tests help in clarifying any suspicion in case a person shows symptoms.

BJP leader as child rights panel chief: HC notice to govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court has issued a notice to the State Government on a PIL questioning the appointment of K Nagannagowda, a BJP leader from Mandya, as chairman of the Karnataka State Commission for Protection of Child Rights (KSCPR).

Seeking a stay for the notification dated October 21, 2022, issued by the government appointing Nagannagowda against the provisions of the Commission for Protection of Child Rights Act, petitioner

Sudha Katwa, an advocate, urged the court to prohibit him from exercising the duties as KSCPR chairman during the pendency of the petition.

Hearing the petition, a division bench of Chief Justice Prasanna B Varale and Justice Ashok S Kinagi issued notice to the State Government.

The petitioner alleged that it is clear that four additional applications were received after the due date and 12 persons were shortlisted instead of 10. The Department of Women and Child Development has selected the name of Nagannagowda who is not the original applicant nor is in the shortlisted candidates on May 9, 2022, the petitioner alleged. His appointment is shrouded in mystery and the entire appointment process is arbitrary and non-transparent, she alleged.

Advocate S Umapathi, representing the petitioner, said Nagannagowda is the BJP Mandya district president and also runs an NGO, and thus, on this ground too, Nagannagowda's appointment is liable to be quashed as it is against the norms, he argued.

He argued that the commission is a body entrusted with discharging quasi-judicial functions with the primary objective of providing a special forum for specific types of disputes arising from the children's community. It should be headed by a person of eminence in public life who has deep knowledge of the welfare of the children to render justice, he said.

The time-bound appointments of statutory posts entrusted with improving the police machinery should not be left vacant for long

Advocate S Umapathi, representing the petitioner

CM kicks off Sahitya Sammelana, reaffirms stand to protect Kannada

Govt's policies have ensured jobs for 80 per cent Kannadigas in industries, claims Bommai

PRAMODKUMAR VAIDYA @ Haveri

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai inaugurated the 86th Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammelana and reiterated his government's commitment to protect Kannada.

He said that the Kannada Langauge Comprehensive Development Bill, which has been introduced to give legal protection to Kannada, has been shared in public domain to ensure that the law has no loopholes.

Kannada has been facing a lot of challenges, and so the government has decided to give legal protection to the language to preserve and nurture it, he said, adding that the piece of legislation will be passed in the upcoming session. The state government has undertaken policy initiatives to ensure employment for 80 per cent Kannadigas in industries, the CM said, adding that an exclusive employment policy was on the card to provide jobs for every Kannadiga.

The government has laid more emphasis to improve basic infrastructure in villages along the state's border and special grants have been sanctioned to build schools in those areas, Bommai said.

Describing the annual literary Kannada meet as an opportunity to introspect one's role, Bommai said that one should dismiss the notion that Kannada is in danger and instead make a concerted effort to build confidence and resolve.

'Irrigation decade'

Bommai announced that the next decade would be called the decade of irrigation. The government has increased irrigation cover by 1.5 lakh acres, and has decided to complete all pending irrigation projects in the next 10 years, he said.

Releasing a special postal stamp to mark the literary meet, former chief minister BS Yediyurappa said that if there is any issue that threatens the federal structure, it should be resolved through the Constitutional means and dialogue.

'WILL TAKE ALTERNATIVE SAMMELANA SPORTINGLY'

Amit S Upadhye @ Haveri: Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said on Friday that he will take alternative sammelana sportingly and that the state government will consider proceedings of other sammelana in Bengaluru. Bommai said that alternative events or paryana sammelana are part of every main sammelana.

"But I will take it sportingly. The matters which are discussed in the sammelana will be taken seriously by the state government," he said. Several Kannada writers and poets have expressed their support to alternative sammelana which is scheduled to be held in Bengaluru on January 8. The writers alleged that the sammelana in Haveri has ignored Muslim writers and poets. Speaking on the ongoing tussle over border between Karnataka and Maharashtra, Bommai said that the sammelana will have detailed discussion on the border issues. "I will announce something in this regard soon. Wait for the concluding day of Sammelana," Bommai said.

D HEMANTH

He comes with one demand...

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR @ Haveri

MYSURU resident BA Shankar was the cynosure of all eyes at the 86th Kannada Sahitya Sammelana in Haveri which was inaugurated on Friday.

Holding a Kannada flag and a poster urging the government to implement the recommendations of the Mahajan Commission report, Shankar has been attending the last 30 editions of the Kannada meet. "I am ready to sacrifice myself but not Belagavi. Implement Mahajan Commission report," reads the poster.

"I have been attending the sammelana for the last 30 years. Every Kannadiga should safeguard our border districts. Belagavi is part of Karnataka. The government should put pressure on the Union Government to implement the Mahajan Commission report recommendations," he told TNIE.

In 1968, the Centre constituted the Mahajan Commission to solve the border dispute between Maharashtra and Karnataka. "Recently, the Karnataka government said that the recommendations made by the Mahajan Commission were final. So there should be no issue with Belagavi and also we will fight to merge Kasaragod (in present day Kerala) into Karnataka. I will attend every sammelana until I die hoping that the government will address my demand," he added.

Several visitors also took photos with Shankar, who also collected signatures in support of his demand.

MY TAKE

ARE WE MISSING THE LITERARY BUS TO WELD COMMUNITIES TOGETHER?

NIRAD MUDUR
Deputy Resident Editor, Karnataka
niradgmudur@newindianexpress.com

The bitterness arising out of exclusion of scholars and intellectuals at the Haveri literary meet, apparently based on communal lines, is anathema to the very purpose of a literary festival

The 86th Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammelan, a three-day literary fest to promote the Kannada language that got underway in Haveri on Friday, could be remembered for a long time in the history of Karnataka. Unfortunately, it may not be remembered for its originally intended purpose of promoting the language and exploiting its valuable role in unifying the communally and linguistically diverse society of Karnataka. Rather disturbingly, it is likely to be remembered for further dividing the society in a state which, for decades, has remained a shining example of harmony.

There is dissent in sections of the Kannada literary circle over a large number of Muslim Kannada scholars being excluded from the event. Only six have been included for participation. The anger among the dissenters is that the event is organised by the Kannada Sahitya Parishat, funded by the Karnataka government — which means taxpayers' money funding the event. It has led to several progressive Kannada scholars choosing to keep out of the event to hold two alternative literary events called Jana Sahitya Sammelana on January 8 in Bengaluru at Alumni Hall, KR Circle, and a second – a much larger one – on January 29 at Palace Grounds, also in Bengaluru.

The bitterness arising out of exclusion of scholars and intellectuals at Haveri, apparently based on communal lines, at a literary event is anathema to the very purpose of a literary festival. Literary events are inherently aimed at bringing together scholars in a particular language from diverse backgrounds on a single platform. They are meant to put the language on a high pedestal by sharing literary works of high quality. It is meant to promote unity, not divisiveness and exclusivity.

It has led to the dissenting scholars planning to discuss issues that have divided the Karnataka society lately. A more inclusive approach at the Haveri event could have actually allowed the power of Kannada literature to act as a soothing balm on the persisting issues that are deepening the communal divide in the state. Everything points to reactive moves, rather than proactive ones had the Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammelana been held with inclusion of all deserving scholars in Haveri itself, irrespective of the communities they hail from.

The way it has turned out could prevent putting the language and its literature on the high pedestal.

Social and cultural psychologists like Jonathan Haidt categorise ethics of individuals into three: ethics of autonomy, ethics of community and ethics of divinity. The ethics of autonomy deals with the individual's wants, needs and preferences. The ethics of divinity deals with individuals being children of God and appropriate behaviour in keeping with the divine. The ethics of community — which is the most widely applicable, irrespective of the other two — deals with appropriate behaviour of individuals while being part of a larger community, as in what we call 'society'. The ethics of community makes individuals subservient to the society they belong to.

Literary events encourage an exchange of ideas using language and its literature in various hues to delve into issues and aspects pertaining to society that individuals live in. These become scaffolds of the ethics of community as individuals are a part of a society that cannot be done without. The fear is about these scaffolds developing cracks, which are bound to remain invisible to those indifferent to their crumbling down.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai has taken a reassuring approach while saying that he would take the alternative literary events sportively, and that the issues discussed at these events would be taken seriously by the state government.

Unfortunately, Karnataka has been witnessing an ever-deepening communal divide over a slew of issues over the past year. The last thing it requires is something like literary events missing the bus to weld the communities together. That welding together of communities is something that Karnataka desperately needs — with not a trace of exclusion.

Won't cede an inch of Karnataka to Maha, says Sammelana president

DODDARANGE Gowda, however, welcomed the Kannada Language Comprehensive Development Bill introduced by the state government which gives legal protection to Kannada language. He said the Bill includes some positive aspects like recognising Kannada as the state language and stressing on the use of the language in administration and judiciary. "This Bill should soon become a legislation and be implemented effectively", he demanded.

On the border dispute between Karnataka and Maharashtra, Gowda said, "We will not lose an inch of Karnataka to any other state and the Mahajan Commission report has already settled the boundary row. It is not fair on the part of the neighbouring state to indulge in acts of violence and create social disturbance. The issue should be settled through dialogue and within the framework of law".

Expressing concern that Kannada was facing the onslaught of English, the noted lyricist said that Kannada, Kannadiga and Karnataka are interdependent and any separation between them could harm the language.

Ball set rolling for Ram temple in state

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Bengaluru:

The Karnataka religious endowment (muzrai) department has written to the Ramanagara DC to take action with regard to construction of a Ram temple at Ramadevarabetta hills, on the model of the one coming up at Ayodhya in Uttar Pradesh.

DC Dr Avinash Menon Rajendran, through a letter dated January 3, was asked to set up a development committee and send a proposal to the government on the feasibility, and a proposal with a clear-cut opinion about implementing the project on 19 acres of land belonging to the department.

"There has been a demand from locals and devotees for construction of a temple, following which IT&BT Minister Dr CN Ashwath Narayan submitted a memorandum to CM Basavaraj Bommai," the letter stated. But with the hills hosting a vulture sanctuary, construction of a temple in the vicinity is likely to kick off a row as it requires clearance by the National Board of Wildlife, sources told TNIE.

"It is the habitat of three species of vulture. In February 2022, a rarely sighted long-billed vulture hatched its eggs here," sources said.

Nadda says people will teach Siddu, Congress lesson for 'puppy' remark

G SUBHASH CHANDRA
@ Davanagere/Tumakuru

BJP leaders put an united front at Sira with party national president JP Nadda, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and his predecessor BS Yediyurappa blowing the poll bugle on Friday, while opposition leader Siddaramaiah's "puppy" remark continued to be the bone of contention.

"It's an insult to the people of Karnataka that an incumbent CM has been insulted by a former CM. I am sure that people will teach Siddaramaiah and Congress a lesson in the Assembly polls," Nadda said.

Bommai said Siddaramaiah should not presume he is a tiger. "People have a magic wand that can transform a tiger into a rat," he said.

BJP will prove its loyalty to the people by including the Kunchitiga Vokkaliga community in the Centre's OBC list and Kadugollas will be given the ST status.

Karnataka has been an innovation hub and has attracted Rs 90 lakh crore in investments during the GIM, Nadda said, adding that the state has also bagged the top spot in attracting foreign direct investment.

The work on the four-lane Tumakuru-Tiptur highway, which is a part of the Bengaluru-Honnavar NH-206 project, is under way, while the work will start soon on the newly-commissioned Tumakuru-Davanagere rail route, he said.

"UPA had meted out a stepmotherly treatment to the state when Siddaramaiah was chief minister, while Yediyurappa and Bommai governments have worked in tandem with Centre for development," he said.

Since Narendra Modi took over as prime minister, there has been a change in the political culture of the country, said Nadda in Davanagere. "The previous UPA government was a conglomeration of parties which were backing dynastic rule, and believed in vote-bank politics. Modi not only challenged dynasty politics, caste equations, vote bank politics, but also ensured the mantra of Sabka Saath Sabka Vikas, which transformed the political culture in India," he said.

"India tackled the pandemic efficiently, building everything from scratch, and now, we are capable of handling any pandemic," he asserted.

Nadda late, Valmiki Mutt seer leaves

Davanagere: The seer of Valmiki Mutt Prasannanda Swamiji refused to meet BJP national president JP Nadda as he was late. Jagaluru MLA SV Ramachandra repeatedly assured the seer that Nadda will arrive soon, but he refused to wait and left. However, Nadda went to the mutt and paid his obeisance at the memorial of former seer, and then arrived in Davanagere to attend a convention. On Friday, Nadda visited Kuruba community Swami, Niranjananda Puri swami at Belludi Mutt. Niranjananda Puri broached the issue of inclusion of Kurubas into the ST category, to which, Nadda said the BJP will stand by the community.

PWD engineer held for carrying ₹10.5 lakh released by court

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE 52-year-old assistant engineer, J Jagadeesh of the Public Works Department, who was arrested for carrying unaccounted cash of Rs 10.5 lakh, has been released by a city court terming the arrest illegal.

Jagadeesh, the assistant engineer with the Public Works, Ports and Inland Water Transport Department, was arrested by the Vidhana Soudha police on Thursday evening. He was produced before a court in Mayo Hall court complex on Friday.

"The case registered against Jagadeesh was under Section 98 of the Karnataka Police Act which is a non-cognisable offence. There is no need to arrest anybody under the section. The court took strong objection to the police action in arresting my client. He was released and the case will be quashed," Raju Gadekar, advocate of the assistant engineer, told TNIE.

As to why Jagadeesh was carrying cash, Gadekar said his client had a cheque bounce case registered against him in Mandya and he was taking the cash for settlement by giving to the aggrieved party.

"Jagadeesh had collected the cash from his relative and another person in Bengaluru and was taking it to Mandya to give it to the complainant and settle the dispute. Enroute he came to Vidhana Soudha on official work and was not aware that the cash should not be carried. On Thursday after he came to reply to the notice, the policemen arrested him without any valid reason. I accompanied him to the police station and the police did not respond to me, stating that they are acting on the instructions of their higher-ups," Gadekar added.

The engineer is from VV Nagar in Mandya. The police after arresting him on Thursday had claimed that he was not cooperating in the investigations.

Minister denies charges on engineer

ENS @ Bengaluru

PWD Minister CC Patil on Friday rubbished allegations of opposition leaders that PWD Junior Engineer Jagadish had come to Vidhana Soudha to pay money to a minister.

Patil said an investigation has been taken up and action will be taken if the engineer fails to provide proper documents for the money. Jagadish was caught with Rs 10 lakh at Vidhana Soudha on Thursday. On Congress leader Siddaramaiah's allegations that the engineer may have taken the money to give to a minister, Patil said he too can make such allegations against the former CM. Patil said he has no connection with the engineer and had not put pressure on anyone. He also wondered why the engineer came to Vidhana Soudha to give money to anyone.

On the reservation issue, he said it is not correct to set a deadline for the government to decide on the Panchamasali reservation and invited community leaders, including Basava Jayamrityunjaya Swamiji and MLA Basangouda Patil Yatnal, for talks.

Probe 'women for Mumbai team': Min

RAMAKRISHNA BADSESHI
@ Kalaburagi/Mysuru

"I am not a tainted politician nor am I involved in any illegality. If (JDS senior leader) HD Kumaraswamy is making allegations of girls being supplied to Mumbai, let him give a complaint to the CM and let there be a probe," said Minister for Cooperation ST Somashekar in Mysuru on Friday, days after Kumaraswamy charged that 'Santro' Ravi, an accused in a rape case, supplied women to Mumbai Team.

By Mumbai Team, Kumaraswamy meant a group of rebel JDS and Congress legislators, who stayed in Mumbai before bringing down the JDS-Congress coalition government headed by him. Somashekar said Kumaraswamy is making such statements as he is scared of losing the coming Assembly elections.

HDK releases video

In Kalaburagi, Kumaraswamy on Friday released a video, purportedly showing 'Santro' Ravi talking to Minister for Cooperation ST Somashekar.

Kumaraswamy seemed to be hitting back at the minister for his comment in Mysuru recently that a dancer who cannot dance gives the excuse of a tilted floor, referring to the failure of the Kumaraswamy's coalition government to complete its full term. Releasing the video, Kumaraswamy asked, "Who is this mediator? Why is he discussing the transfer issue with Somashekar?"

A 53-year-old man was arrested in Coimbatore for allegedly threatening Tamil Nadu BJP chief K Annamalai. The suspect is identified as K Ramesh, who was residing in a rented house near the Corporation complex near Podanur. He allegedly posted a video threatening Annamalai on social media

Cong demands CBI probe into defections

Telangana Congress chief Revanth Reddy and CLP leader Mallu Bhatti Vikramarka during a party meeting in Hyderabad on Friday | JWALA

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hyderabad

JOINING the poachgate debate, the Telangana Congress on Friday lodged a complaint at the Moinabad police station, where the BRS MLAs poaching case was also registered, seeking an inquiry into the switching of loyalties by its own legislators earlier, and transfer of the case to CBI.

TPCC chief A Revanth Reddy, CLP leader Mallu Bhatti Vikramarka, SA Sampath, B Mahesh Kumar Goud and other leaders, visited the police station to lodge their complaint, accusing the TRS (now BRS) government of poaching four MPs, 25 MLAs, and 18 MLCs from various political parties in a "quid pro quo" deal between 2014 and 2018.

They said Sabitha Indra Reddy was given a portfolio in the CMK Chandrasekhar Rao cabinet, while Devireddy Sudheer Reddy and Rega Kantha Rao were appointed chairman of the Musi River Front Development Corporation and Whip in the Legislative Assembly, respectively, after the three defected to the ruling party, after winning on Congress tickets. Other MLAs of the Congress were given monetary benefits by the TRS for switching loyalties, they alleged.

Three of the four BRS MLAs whom the BJP allegedly attempted to poach were originally from the Congress. They were among the 12 MLAs "poached" by the ruling party, they said. They maintained that the BRS poachgate case and the MLAs defecting from the Congress to the ruling party, cannot be seen in isolation.

Addressing reporters, Revanth charged, "Though he won with absolute majority, Rao poached MLAs from Congress out of envy for Dalit leader Bhatti Vikramarka's rise as the CLP leader."

CBI to wait till HC hears state appeal on Poachgate

The Telangana High Court on Friday asked the CBI to wait until it completes hearing of writ petitions filed by the state government against the single judge order handing over the BRS MLAs poaching case probe to the agency. The CBI informed the bench of Chief Justice Ujjal Bhuyan and Justice N Tukaramji that through Deputy Solicitor General of India Gade Praveen Kumar, that it had sent a letter to the Chief Secretary requesting all relevant case material.

Arrested student is Brahmavar Cong leader's son

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Udupi

A day after the National Investigation Agency (NIA) arrested Reshaan Thajuddin Sheikh from Varamballi in Brahmavar, Udupi, photos of the suspect's father, Thajuddin Sheikh, with Congress leaders are going viral. In the photographs, Thajuddin Sheikh is seen posing with Siddaramaiah, DK Shivakumar and U T Khader.

Udupi MLA K Raghupathi Bhat said on Friday that Reshaan Sheikh, an engineering student at a college in Mangaluru, who was arrested on Thursday in connection with the Shivamogga ISIS conspiracy case, is the son of a Congress leader in Brahmavar. "The arrest reveals that the Congress has links with persons involved in terror activities," Bhat said.

Bhat told reporters that the NIA said the arrested student hails from Varamballi, Brahmavar. "Now it has been found that the student is the son of Thajuddin Sheikh, general secretary of Brahmavar Block Congress. Thajuddin is an active Congress worker and is close to KPCC president D K Shivakumar, CLP leader Siddaramaiah and MLA U T Khader. Photos proved the nexus between the Congress and those involved in terror activities," he said.

Bhat appealed to the government to intensify investigation into the case, and conduct an investigation into "hidden suspicious activities" along the coast. The NIA should keep extra vigil on the coastal region, he demanded. The Congress should clarify whether it will remove Thajuddin from his post in the Brahmavar Block Congress, he said, adding that the government should also investigate his family background.

Bhat added that Reshaan's mother is a lecturer at a government college in Thenkanidiyoor in Udupi, and that he had earlier complained to Minister for Primary and Secondary Education BC Nagesh that "she had spoken against patriotism and Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the college". Audio clippings of her speech had been handed over to the minister, Bhat said.

Udupi District Congress president Ashok Kumar Kodavoor said he has sought a report from the Brahmavar Block Congress Committee president.

Man kills self after throwing 2 kids into well

ENS @ Kalaburagi

A man committed suicide after throwing his two children into a well in Aland. The deceased have been identified as Siddu Mahamallappa (38), his daughter Shreya (11) and son Manish (10).

Aland DSP Ravindra Shirur said Siddu went out of his house along with his daughter and son on Wednesday and had not returned. As some people found a foul smell emanating from a well situated near the bus depot, they informed the police on Friday morning.

Personnel of the Police and Fire services searched the well and brought out the bodies of Shreya and Manish in the morning. Siddu's body was also pulled out of the well later. Shirur said Siddu's wife is mentally unsound and Siddu had spent lot of money for her treatment. Worried, he took the extreme step.

NLSIU releases student numbers, says it is following reservation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE National Law School of India University (NLSIU), Bengaluru, has released the number of Karnataka students admitted since 2021, stating that the university has followed the reservation 'in letter and spirit'.

On Friday, NLSIU released the number of Karnataka students admitted to the law programmes and total number of students from the academic years 2021-22, 2022-23 and 2023-24, which showed that the university has maintained the local reservation of 25%. "In Academic Year 2024-25, the number of Karnataka students admitted to law programmes at NLSIU is projected to increase to 135 with increases to overall student intake. In Academic Year 2026-27, the minimum number of Karnataka students studying law programmes at the University will increase to around 500 students. As set out above, NLSIU has implemented the Karnataka Student reservation in letter and spirit," NLSIU said in a statement.

In 2020, the state government had amended the NLSIU Act, stipulating the NLSIU Bengaluru would need to provide 25 per cent of its seats to Karnataka students. NLSIU pointed out that the amendment made to the NLSIU Act had been struck down by the Karnataka High Court, which said the government had no power to direct NLSIU to provide reservations. While the Karnataka government had approached the Supreme Court through a Special Leave Petition, no interim order has been given, NLSIU said. "Hence, the judgement of the Hon'ble High Court is the applicable law to the matter," they stated.

Higher Education Minister Dr Ashwath Narayan on Friday issued a letter to NLSIU, stating that the university has not been following the local reservation of 25 per cent to Karnataka students for the last two years. "It is a violation of government rules that the students of the state selected on the basis of merit under the All India Quota are being brought under the ambit of this reservation. This is against the principle of natural justice," the minister said. The letter came following orders from Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhu Swamy to NLSIU asking them to stick to the reservation.

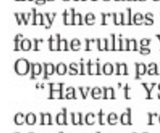
Naidu holds public meet amid police restrictions

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chittoor

FOR the third consecutive day, high drama prevailed in Kuppam constituency as TDP chief N Chandrababu Naidu continued touring his home turf amid police restrictions.



It is learnt that Naidu had planned to organise a meeting at Chinnagollapalle and visit Sangapalle in Kuppam on Friday. After police prevented him from conducting a public meeting, the TDP supremo staged a sit-in at Gudupalle bus stand. Later, he climbed onto a private bus and addressed the public.

"Should I not meet my people and address their grievances? How can you prevent me from this," he asked.

Naidu slammed the state government for issuing the order banning public meetings on roads and questioned why the rules were different for the ruling YSRCP and for Opposition parties.

"Haven't YSRCP leaders conducted roadshows in Macherla, Nandigama and other places after the GO was issued," he asked.

Suspecting Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy's role behind police preventing him from conducting roadshows in his constituency, Naidu urged the police to "stop the slavery".

NEED TO MAINTAIN SANCTITY OF THE DELIMITATION PROCESS

INDIA is nearing its date with a comprehensive redrawing of parliamentary and legislative assembly constituencies in 2026. Though the exercise would be conducted after the 2031 census, the process may well start in 2026. The number of seats have remained frozen since 1976 when political parties decided to defer delimitation for 25 years till 2001. In 2001, they deferred it for another 25 years till 2026.

Meanwhile, the government has asked the Election Commission to redraw constituencies in Assam. That raised questions about singling out Assam. Social groups and political parties objected even to the EC's process and the timing. A constitutionally mandated exercise should inspire confidence among all sections because constituencies are like building blocks of democracy. The people must always be reassured that the edifice of our parliamentary democracy stands on a solid foundation. Questions were also raised over the decision of the government and the EC to use different yardsticks for delimitation in Assam and Jammu and Kashmir. In J&K, the delimitation was carried out using the 2011 census data, while in Assam the election commission is using data from the 2001 census. Another objection is to the hasty merger of four districts into their parent districts by the Assam government. The critics said the government's move was to beat the election commission's deadline of January 1, 2023 to freeze the administrative units in the state. The merger was done purely to influence the socio-religious composition of constituencies. The state government's "administrative exigencies" argument has few takers. The exercise in Assam is just the beginning. It has given important lessons for the 2026 delimitation. The new constituency map India will draw up in 2026 will remain in use for the next 50 years. Rules need to be framed for the non-partisan and non-controversial conduct of the 2026 exercise. The southern states are already apprehensive about the next round of delimitation. They have vigorously implemented family planning measures. In contrast, northern and eastern states have witnessed a population explosion. If the next delimitation is undertaken on the basis of numbers, the the southern states will be net losers in terms of seats in parliament, as Article 81 of the Constitution requires that each state must get representation based on its population.

GOVT PLAN TO PRIVATISE PSBs IN A CLEFT STICK

NEARLY three years after the government announced the privatisation of banks, the proposal remains a non-starter. So much so that it has yet to identify the lenders whose stakes will be up for grabs. The prevailing uncertain market conditions, weak investor appetite, and the fear of large-scale protests by employee unions are holding the government back from making its move. As per news reports, the government has directed Niti Aayog, which is preparing the list of contenders for privatisation, to keep five of the 12 PSBs, including behemoths SBI and Punjab National Bank, out of the privatisation plan. Given the forthcoming assembly and general elections, it will be interesting to see how the proposal will proceed.

Globally, the debate surrounding bank privatisations remains unsettled. If developed nations offloaded stakes in respective PSBs en masse a few decades ago, the trend reversed following the 2008 global financial crisis. For instance, in developing countries, the average share of assets held by government-owned banks fell from 40% in 1995 to 17% in 2008, and from 36% to 10% in high-income countries. However, public ownership increased as countries were compelled to nationalise stressed banks after 2008. As noted in one of the RBI papers, the share of banking assets held by countries like Iceland and the UK shot up by 10 percentage points in just two years between 2008 and 2010. Moreover, PSBs' lending is counter-cyclical, adding to macroeconomic stability compared to private banks, which are pro-cyclical. PSBs' role in the recent pandemic-induced economic stimulus package is still fresh to forget.

That said, deposit withdrawals following the collapse of Yes Bank and Lakshmi Vilas Bank indicate that even PSBs are no exception, notwithstanding the sovereign's implicit backing. The RBI paper observed that depositors value banks' health more than government guarantees. While consolidation created stronger PSBs and given the legacy bad loans are largely wiped out, the focus must shift to strengthening governance. PSBs have a higher share in overall banking metrics, yet their service delivery and operational efficiencies are far lower than private peers. Above all, private banks are driven by profit maximisation motives and rake in high net interest margins. The government must improve PSBs' profitability first, which attracts investors, before firming up privatisation.

QUICK TAKE

OUTLAW VIRGIN BRIDE SYNDROME

THE SC has banned 'two-finger' virginity testing in rape cases. But India must also criminalise some Indian communities forcing new brides to undergo virginity tests on marriage nights. A few victims, like one from Rajasthan's Sansi community last September, want to fight it but lack social support. A bride who doesn't bleed during the first intercourse after marriage is declared immoral, shunned and fined. The blight is global. Kosovo banned it last October, and the UK has outlawed hymenoplasty or 'virginity repair' surgery. India should follow suit and run campaigns to change rigid cultural views through education and social intervention.

INDIA'S GROWTH PROSPECTS IN THE NEW YEAR

BIBEK DEBROY

Chairman, Economic Advisory Council to the PM

SOURAV ROY

AT this time of the year, some obvious questions are important to most people. What will the calendar year 2023 be like? That question has many dimensions, including an economic one. The economic cannot be delinked from the political, and the global cannot be delinked from the domestic. The global scene doesn't look that bright. Russia-Ukraine is far from over. Covid is far from over, too, and implications of what is unfurling in China, with legitimate scepticism about numbers emanating from that country, is unclear. With our vaccination levels, immunity and better-preparedness compared to the second phase in 2021, there is no reason to be paranoid. The recession has a technical definition. Notwithstanding the definition, Europe is perilously close to one, and the US economy isn't in great shape either. Food and energy prices have shot up, despite a slight levelling off. There have been supply chain disruptions. Monetary policies have been tightened, leading to spill-over effects on India, not to mention volatility in forex and capital markets. Some of those countries, including some in our immediate neighbourhood, may be ranked higher than India in global happiness indices, but I think most Indians will rejoice they live in India and not elsewhere now. We don't know how global growth and trade will fare in this uncertain world in 2023. Economic forecasters are as unsure as astrologers, and the track record of either set on past projections is far from perfect. But we do know world trade won't do that well in 2023. Among others, WTO has recently told us this, lowering earlier forecasts.

It isn't just the financial sector. India's real sector isn't insulated from what goes on in the rest of the world. There is no decoupling except as a figment of the imagination. World Bank's figures are that, in 2021, India's trade/GDP ratio was 45%, higher than figures for both China and USA. The figure for the US was 25%, underlining the fact that India isn't as closed and insular as is often suggested. High real GDP growth requires both exports and imports. However, India isn't dependent only on net exports as a growth driver. There are three others, too – consumption, investment and government expenditure. (In passing, plenty of internal trade occurs in a large country like India, not captured in cross-country trade/GDP ratios.) Symbolically, what's likely to be the combination of X, C, I and G? The answer depends a bit on the benchmark and the timeline. Do we have in mind 2023-24 pertinent for the forthcoming Budget, the next three years, the next decade, or the next 25 years, leading up to 2047? As a benchmark, do we have in mind real growth of 5%, 7% or 9%? The oft-cited 2003 Goldman Sachs BRICS paper assumed an average real rate of growth of around 5.5% for India. Today, aspirations have changed. If India grows at 5.5%, there will be a sense of gloom and doom. In 2022-23, the year about to end, there is consensus, not just within government circles, that India will grow between 6.8 and 7%. Everyone also agrees that, with the bleak global growth and trade scenario, 9% is impossible, at least in the next three years. (It will take at least two years, if not more, for some global recovery.)

There are different ways to take a call on 2023-24 and the next three years beyond a gut feeling that it will be 5.5% or 7%. One can look at past trends of years when India has done 7% and more. I am not talking about 9%. If one does that, one will find that even if X doesn't do that well, if the other three engines of C, I and G fire, 7% is possible, even approaching 8%. Indeed, there has been a slowdown from roughly 2017. Those who lean towards 5.5% extrapolate based on that slowdown. But the counter-argument is also fairly plausible. Since 2014, the government has put in place several reforms, which can broadly be described as supply-side. Despite Covid and its aftermath, there is no evidence there was anything wrong with those reforms. (That doesn't preclude further tweaking of those reforms in the forthcoming Budget and otherwise.) Supply-side reforms work with a time lag, further extended because of the pandemic. If that time lag is out of the way, there should be a discontinuity from the trend of deceleration. An example of that difference in perception is how many economists view the savings or investment rate as a share of GDP, returning to basic growth theory. The incremental capital/output ratio (ICOR) is a measure of the efficiency of capital usage. It gives us the additional units of capital one needs to produce one additional unit of output. A basic growth theory equation is that the growth rate will be the investment rate divided by ICOR. In high growth years, India's investment rate was around 38%. To illustrate the idea in a back-of-the-envelope kind of way, if the ICOR is 4.5, an investment rate of 38% gives us a growth rate of 7.6%. But the investment rate has dropped to 31%. With that same ICOR, we can only get real growth of 6.9%. And if, because of investments in infrastructure, the ICOR goes up to 5, we will only get a growth rate of 6.2%.

I have stated the issue with the investment rate, though it is often stated with a savings rate and the difference between the investment rate and the savings rate is explained by foreign savings. To state it simply, the current account deficit as a share of GDP. There is no denying the savings rate should be higher in India. There has been a stagnation in household financial savings. There is no denying that the investment rate should be higher, and the government's reform initiatives are designed to boost domestic and foreign investments, the I part. The government's capital investments (G) also stimulate I. In addition, reforms lead to efficiency and lower ICOR. Once we have eliminated X, the call is on C, I and G and their trends for the future. I think Cassandras, who say 5.5% is excessively pessimistic. CEA (Chief Economic Adviser) has mentioned 6.5 to 7% for the medium term. I think this is plausible.

SONNET OR SPEECH, SEEK BOT

PRATIK KANJILAL

Editor of The India Cable

SPEAKEASY

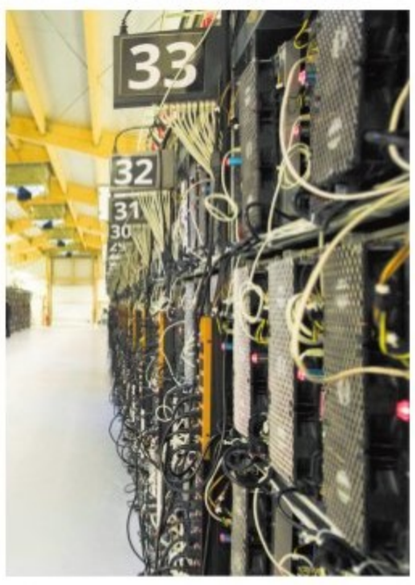
NARENDRA Modi's speechwriter is an endangered species. So is anyone else who does process-defined writing for a living, like a lawyer's assistant, a website developer or a technical translator—the guy who translates user manuals for devices ranging from toasters to MiG fighters. Equally endangered is anyone who makes commercial art—illustrations, book jackets, posters. Maybe even an icon like punk queen Vivienne Westwood, who died last week aged 81, could be restricted to Andy Warhol's (or was it his photographer Nat Finkelstein's) "15 minutes of fame", if they were born in our era. The nightmare of machines becoming incomprehensibly powerful, a staple of dystopian science fiction for over a century, is becoming a reality.

Since its release on November 30, the social media footprint of the AI chatbot ChatGPT (formally GPT3) has grown to rival that of celebrities and public figures. Easily accessed by a chat interface that requires no knowledge of coding or symbolic logic, it invites all sorts of people to prod it to produce poems, school essays, commercial art, Python code and hilarious instruction for exiting the UNIX editor Vim, written in the idiom of the Old Testament: "Be ye not as the heathen, who knoweth not the ways of the Lord, and therefore remain forever trapped in the depths of the editor…"

But surprisingly, ChatGPT's prowess has not rekindled speculation that a machine has finally passed the Turing test, which was quite the craze in the early days of the internet. The wartime code-breaker and pioneering computer theorist Alan Turing formulated his test very simply in 1950: If a machine designed to mimic humans communicates in an idiom indistinguishable from theirs, it should be regarded as human intelligence.

Turing mania began with the first 'chatterbots'—machines which interacted with humans through typed messages using natural language processing. The pioneer was Eliza, written at MIT in the mid-Sixties by Joseph Weizenbaum, one of the founding fathers of AI. It was named after Eliza Doolittle in Pygmalion because it was constantly improved by interactions with people—just like its remote descendant ChatGPT. Julia was born in the Nineties, a child of the internet. Written by Michael Mauldin (who also wrote the Lycos search engine), she was Turing-grade in short conversations, but in longer chats, she gave away her machine identity by constantly trying to steer conversations to stuff she knew. Her favourite issue in the Nineties was dog people versus cat people. For people who were neither, the conversation quickly became artificial.

The website bots which have replaced human-run helplines are the descendants of Eliza and Julia. They're limited in their ability to access and process information, and can only perform specific tasks, usually indifferently GPT3, the third iteration of OpenAI's Generative Pre-trained Transformer, is a different beast, learning from resources all over the internet, including the input queries of people accessing it.



Easily accessed by a chat interface that requires no knowledge of coding or symbolic logic, it invites all sorts of people to prod it to produce poems, school essays, commercial art

OpenAI in San Francisco was founded by Sam Altman (of Y Combinator), Elon Musk, Peter Thiel, Amazon Web Services and others in 2015, who committed to collaborating with the industry and keeping its research open to the public.

In the public imagination, 'open' suggests free—as in free beer. Which suggests, in turn, that open source is woolly-headed altruism. Free software pioneer Richard Stallman has been railing against this misrepresentation for decades, but no one ever listens. Maybe OpenAI will solve his problem, too, because it's quite commercial. It's frightfully expensive to run the machine that spits out those extraordinary poems and essays, and OpenAI, which was founded as a nonprofit, is now a for-profit enterprise that caps its margin at 100X. The speed breaker is also a marker of how much money the technology could make.

GPT3 is not the only machine in the ring. GPT4, the next iteration, is expected soon. And Google, which ran the first 'transformer' (that's the T in ChatGPT) back in 2017, tested PaLM (Pathways Language Model), a rig much bigger than ChatGPT, in April 2022. For years, BERT has run in the background of its search engine, helping it to understand the context of our searches. If Google seems to magically know what you were looking for when you were vague yourself, it's this model at work behind the scenes. People in the industry surmise that Google will one day deploy AI at a huge scale across all input/output classes—text, image, sound, and code. Its effect on the data ecosystem would be extraordinary.

For now, though, Google is running in quiet mode. ChatGPT has the world's eyeballs because it is the first AI architecture to invite public interaction. It has its faults. It's loaded with filters to strip out racist and sexist queries, but it's susceptible to stereotypes, which underlie both. Someone fed it stereotypes of the Indian states, and it created snapshots of their people. The uproariously happy veteran from Punjab wears campaign ribbons and holds a beer. The guy from West Bengal is a bearded philosopher. But apart from these attributes, they do not look much like people you might know from those states.

Some users also complain that with the right prompts, ChatGPT can lie convincingly. In 2001: A Space Odyssey, HAL 9000, the onboard computer on whom the plot hinges, lost his mind because his makers required him to lie, but machines can't deviate from the truth. ChatGPT suffers from no moral crisis and can lie as earnestly as a campaign manager. It is capable of propaganda. Which means, of course, that it's curtains for Narendra Modi's human speechwriter. No competition!

Yatra spirit

It cannot be denied that the Bharat Jodo Yatra has raised a spirit of bonhomie and brotherhood, cutting across party and community barriers. Several heads of regional parties, intellectuals and icons joined the yatra as a mark of support. Rahul should now work out ways to keep the torch aflame and sustain the spirit as an ongoing movement.

WE NOW HAVE MAJOR DISCOVERIES, AND NOT JUST IN OIL AND GAS: HARDEEP PURI

Union Minister Hardeep Puri takes questions on a range of issues, from energy to the new Parliament building. Excerpts from the 2nd edition of Delhi Dialogues, from The New Indian Express

SANTWANA BHATTACHARYA: Falling oil prices may not be good news for the oil-producing countries, but certainly holds such a promise for us. Can we see a scaling down of oil prices in the domestic market as well?
Hardeep Puri: It would be useful to understand the context on energy pricing. We have to acknowledge that we are still dependent on imports for up to 85% of our crude oil needs. For gas, we are about 50-60% dependent. This, despite our production going up by 18% this year.

We consume on an average 5 million barrels of oil, and global consumption is about 100 billion barrels a day. Increase in demand of crude oil is roughly at 1% globally, and 3% in India. If your economy is growing, you need more energy. If people tell you that the economy is growing but the energy demand has come down, then you should start seriously questioning those people.

I've been able to maintain energy security, affordability and availability largely because of two things. One is that OMCs (oil marketing companies) behave like good corporate citizens. And secondly, the prime minister in a very decisive and bold action on two occasions, in November 2021 and May 2022, slashed the excise duty and the total reduction came to Rs 13 for petrol and Rs 16 for diesel.

Sometimes the Opposition members have tried to have fun with me. They said, "Elections are over, now change the fuel prices. I responded to them that, in our country, elections are conducted every three-four months."

We were importing only 0.2% from Russia up to March 31, 2022. Our oil is not bought by the government, so don't try to give me credit. Our oil is bought by the private sector, and they buy from whoever is giving them a better price. The top three positions normally were Saudi Arabia, UAE and Iraq. Russia was nowhere. When the market started becoming volatile, we decided to play what is called a market card.

DIPAK MONDAL: You said the government was not buying oil from Russia; it was the oil companies. Why is it that only private companies benefited?
Hardeep Puri: It is not correct that private companies have benefited more. One clear difference between the private sector and the public sector is in terms of three processes, one is the sourcing of crude, the second is the refining and the third is what you do with the final product. Now people were buying from Russia, and Indian entities are buying both in the public and private sector. I saw the latest figures on purchases from Russia. Our OMCs have increased it to over a million barrels a day. But even the private sector is pretty high – they are buying five to 700,000 barrels a day from them. Our PSUs or OMCs made high refining margins but the problem is the product was sold at a loss to our higher consuming population. Private companies benefited from high refining margins, but they didn't sell in the domestic market. So, we imposed what is called export cess.

Somebody asked me whether your companies are buying cheap oil and selling the refined oil back to to Russia. I want you to get the facts checked. Europe was buying several times more oil from Russia and we, too, were buying. By December 5, EU said it did not want to buy. Now they can say they want to buy oil. Because the oil which is coming through a pipeline from Russia to Hungary is exempt from price cap. The oil, which is going from a pipeline from Russia to China, is exempt from price cap. So, manage your price cap. There is (actually) no ban, still you are having insurance and freight agencies coming under Western sanctions.

DIPAK MONDAL: Will there be any relief package for oil marketing companies (OMCs)?
Hardeep Puri: They have asked us. I'm convinced that we have navigated things well so far (through the Covid-19 crisis). One or two OMCs have been borrowing money. We will do our best to cushion them. Talks are under way and we are trying to find ways to do it (a relief package). But the overall situation is very positive now.

SHEKHAR YADAV

YESHI SELI: There have not been many discoveries in the last seven rounds of NELP (New Exploration Licensing Policy). Is the government planning some other route to discover oil and make India self-reliant on the energy front?
Hardeep Puri: First of all, let me correct you, you can use this even in the headline: we now have major discoveries not only in oil and gas but many other sectors also. We have 3.5 million sq km of sedimentary basin. And how do you expect people to come and do exploration and production if most of it is a no-go area? So recently we opened up one million sq km of the nogo area for investment, including foreign. Secondly, earlier it was said that if you come and explore, then you find the oil and then you turn the national asset around. When I became minister, I thought why ONGC was not producing...either you know how to produce or somebody else will produce the national asset. I want the national asset to be used.... Today you are in a situation where ONGC is trying to produce more, and private players too are coming into it. We are not going to allow a situation where it works to the disadvantage of the country and taxpayers. Today, in addition to this one million square km, we added all the LNG data to the national data. There are four or five big players in the world. All of them want 25% of their supercomputing time to analyze the LNG data. Don't make me go into too much of detail.... I can show things that will amaze you.

RAKESH KUMAR: How long will the government continue to levy windfall tax?
Hardeep Puri: There are reasons and conditions behind the imposition of the windfall tax. And till those conditions exist, the government should continue to impose it. I don't think it's in the government's charter to make sure that any entity, whether in the private or government, makes unintended windfall profits because a state is run on the basis of obligations. Some of you will also appreciate that the Prime Minister reduced excise duty at a time when he was feeding 80 crore people three meals a day. That was the time when we needed the excise taxes the most.

MAYANK SINGH: We have plans to increase the Strategic Petroleum Reserve (SPR) by almost 7 million tonnes. What is the status of that plan?
Hardeep Puri: I can tell you something from July 2021. I remember one of the first decisions that I was part of when I started finding out what a strategic reserve is.

Without going into specifics, we were adding to the strategic reserves. This not something that you want talked about: where it is located, how it is done. The idea is that when energy prices are low, you stop. But we are not in the happy situation that I can be buying oil very expensive and, you know, also giving us strategic results. But we have a very interesting and innovative feature: 50% of what we use is commercial.

Interestingly, when oil prices went up very high, I got a call from my American interlocutor who was dealing with it, and there was a decision by the consuming countries to release from the strategic reserve to bring the prices down. The total amount released was 100 million barrels, we also released, we participated in that. As a consuming country, we saw some interest in doing that. But clearly, our capacity to release more from the strategic reserve is limited. I must be able to make sure my population gets it. So we have a slightly different approach. And anyway, the International Energy Agency was telling me the other day that the strategic reserves are not meant to cushion global prices.

PREETHA NAIR: Will the Budget session be presented in the new Parliament building?
Hardeep Puri: Basically, you've asked whether the new Parliament building is ready. So I'll tell you that it's almost ready and a final call will be taken by the Prime M. There are little things left that are to be completed. In my opinion, we should not rush things. Nobody remembers whether the project is completed 10 days before or after the said date. Look at Kartavya Path.

PREETHA NAIR: What about the artifacts and manuscripts from the museum which existed in the old Parliament building?
Hardeep Puri: All of them were inventoried, listed, packed, and taken to stores. The National Archives Museum has already been shifted to Janpath Road. I had a review meeting on Wednesday. The Vice President's residence is almost ready. The work is going on in the first three executive blocks and will be finished by the end of this year.

MONICA YADAV: Why are municipal bonds not very popular in India?
Hardeep Puri: The question I would face differently is: when did you start municipal bonds? And why has everybody not followed? I have a simple answer (in the form of) an anecdote: Khan Market and Mehr Chand Market were refugee rehabilitation properties roughly given at the same time. Why is Khan Market the most expensive real estate in the world? And Mehr Chand market is where? Well, let's say not as upmarket. Therein lies the answer.

All-woman UN peace team off to Sudan

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

INDIA on Friday sent a platoon of an all-woman joint contingent of the Indian Army and Assam Rifles on the United Nations (UN) peacekeeping mission in Sudan's Abyei region as part of the UN's Interim Security Force (UNISFA).

"This is the single largest deployment of women peacekeepers in recent years," Ruchira Kamboj, India's Permanent Representative to the UN, said. The Indian contingent comprises two officers and 25 other ranks. Hailing the deployment, the Indian Army said, "The team will provide relief and assistance to women and children in one of the highly operational and challenging terrain conditions under the UN flag."

PM Narendra Modi commended the deployment. Reacting to the Indian Army he tweeted, "Proud to see this. India has a tradition of active participation in UN peacekeeping missions. The participation by our Nari Shakti is even more gladdening."

UNSIFA was established in Sudan's Abyei region by the UN Security Council, by its resolution 1990 of 27 June 2011 in response to the emergency situation there. The corps are tasked with monitoring flashpoints at border between north and south, and facilitating humanitarian aid, and is authorised to use force in protecting civilians and humanitarian workers.

The UN's peace mission is to strengthen the Abyei Police Service (APS) by providing support, including the training of personnel, and coordinate with the APS on matters of law and order. The peace corps are also tasked with protecting UN personnel, facilities and installations.

Over 200,000 Indians have served in 49 of the 71 UN peacekeeping missions since 1948. India is one of the largest contributors to UN peacekeeping and was the pioneer in deploying the first all-woman peacekeepers contingent as the Formed Police Unit to Liberia in 2007 under commandant, now Inspector General, Seema Dhundia of the CRPF.

In May 2020, Indian Army's Major Suman Gawani was awarded the UN Military Gender Advocate award as UN peacekeepers along with Commander Carla Monteiro de Castro Araujo, a Brazilian Naval officer. This award was instituted in 2016.

5 OF 7 ARMY COMMANDS TO GET NEW COMMANDERS THIS YEAR

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

THIS year will see a rare coincidence wherein the Indian Army will see a major reshuffle at the top level. The Army will get five new Commanders in Chief (Army Commanders) as the incumbents will be superannuating this year.

The first two Army Commanders to superannuate are Lt Gen Amardeep Singh Bhinder (South Western Command, Pune) and Lt Gen Yogendra Dimri (Central Command, Lucknow), who will be retiring in March. The last among the five will be Lt Gen Rana Pratap Kalita (Eastern Command, Kolkata) who will be retiring in December. The other two officers, Lt Gen SS Mahal (Army Training Command, Shimla) and Lt Gen Nav K Khanduri (Western Command, Chandigarh), will be retiring in between.

Army Commanders of the Udhampur based Northern Command, Lt Gen Upendra Dwivedi and Pune-based Southern Command will continue to be at the helm.

Any officer who becomes the Commander in Chief should have a minimum of 18 months or more of residual service. Keeping the residual age, this cycle of so many officers retiring from the service in the same year comes rarely, said a source.

A Commander in Chief (CinC) of the Armed Forces is an independent authority to fight a war in the theatre of war and the headquarters of the command function as the war headquarters. There are a total of 17 Commands, including seven commands each of the Army and Indian Air Force, and three Commands of the Indian Navy. The country's war waging machinery also includes three tri-services commands — the Strategic Forces Command, Andaman and Nicobar Command, and the Chief of Integrated Defence Staff to the Chairman Chiefs of Staff Committee (CISC).

There will be change in command at the Andaman Nicobar Command too, as Lt Gen Ajai Singh will also be hanging his uniform this year. CISC Air Marshal BR Krishna is to retire in January 2024 and is likely to be replaced by a CinC of the Indian Army.

'Rarely do so many officers retire the same year'

Any officer who becomes the Commander in Chief should have a minimum of 18 months or more of residual service. Keeping the residual age, this cycle of so many officers retiring from the service in the same year comes rarely, said a source

SC transfers all same-sex marriage pleas to itself

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday directed the transfer of all petitions regarding legal recognition for same-sex marriages pending before different high courts, to itself. A bench headed by Chief Justice of India D Y Chandrachud, while transferring the petitions, asked the government to file its response by February 15. It granted liberty to the petitioners to argue their case before it virtually.

On March 13, the court will begin hearing petitions seeking recognition of same-sex marriage under various Acts, including the Special Marriage Act, Foreign Marriage Act and Hindu Marriage Act.

The SC appointed nodal counsel on behalf of both sides to assist the court. The CJI suggested the Solicitor General and the petitioner counsel to discuss and identify the issues to be argued. He also said three-four lead counsel can be decided by the petitioners to avoid repetition.

Ahead of Friday's hearing, an organisation called United Hindu Front protested against the SC for agreeing to consider pleas seeking the relief, adding homosexuality is against Indian culture. The court had earlier issued notice on some of the pleas and sought the Centre's response to two pleas filed by two gay couples, seeking solemnisation of same-sex marriage under the Special Marriage Act, 1954.

Apex court stays HC order on border pact between Meghalaya and Assam

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday lifted the stay that was ordered by Meghalaya High Court on execution of Meghalaya-Assam border pact, which was entered into by the chief ministers of the states pursuant to filing an agreement on March 29, 2022.

The pact was signed by Meghalaya CM Conrad Sangma and his Assam counterpart Himanta Biswa Sarma for demarcating the border in at least six of the 12 contested locations between the two states.

Terming the HC order, which was passed without furnishing reasons as "unwarranted", a bench of CJI DY Chandrachud, and Justices PS Narasimha and JB Pardiwala said, "It appears that single judge hasn't furnished reasons for granting interim order. MoU between CM would require any further parliament is a distinct issue. An interim order staying effectively the MoU without any reasons was unwarranted."

The bench had agreed to take up the plea pursuant to the mentioning made by Solicitor General Tushar Mehta for the Meghalaya government.

The Meghalaya HC on December 8, 2022 ordered interim stay till the next date of hearing on February 6, 2023, on a petition filed by four 'traditional chiefs' of Meghalaya. The judge said, "It is understood that during the intervening period, no physical demarcation or erection of boundary posts on the ground, pursuant to the MoU dated 29.03.2022 shall be carried out, till the next date."

The counsel for Assam said the HC order was passed "ex parte". For the respondents who were petitioners before the HC, the counsel argued that the MOU didn't have concurrence of Parliament under Article 3.

"Division bench order was passed with consent. Tribal land is being converted into non-tribal land. There are attacks on villager by police of Assam for demarcating the boundary," he had said.

Our youth emerging pioneers, says Thakur at Y20 event

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

UNION Information and Broadcasting Minister Anurag Thakur on Friday said that Indian youth are emerging pioneers and fast adopters of new technology; whether its social media led social causes or billion dollar start-ups, India's youth is leading from the front. He was speaking at the launch of the themes of Y20 summit, its logo and website in the curtain raiser event in Delhi.

"Indian youth are emerging as pioneers and fast adopters of new technology. Our youngsters are leveraging technology and driving the start-up culture, providing pragmatic solutions to socio-economic problems; whether its social media led social causes or billion dollar start- ups - India's youth is leading from the front," the minister said.

He said that when the world was struggling with COVID-19, India's youth achieved the milestone of 50 unicorns. He expressed his pride over India holding world's third position in terms of number of start-ups – with over 100 unicorns.

The Engagement Groups of which Youth 20 or Y20 is a part, brings together civil societies, parliamentarians, think tanks, women, youth, labour, businesses and researchers of the G20 countries.

BJP's Agnipath has ruined careers of youth, says Rahul

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

AROUND six months after the government introduced Agnipath for recruitment to the armed forces, Rahul Gandhi persisted with his criticism of the scheme, accusing the BJP of labeling him "anti-Army."

The former Congress chief said that young aspiring Army candidates told him that their future was ruined.

Rahul was speaking at a rally on the first day of the second phase of his Bharat Jodo Yatra in Haryana. The yatra resumed from Sanoli-Panipat Road. "First make me understand what the Agnipath scheme is," said Rahul, addressing a rally in Panipat.

"The energy of the state is going to waste. The BJP says its leaders are patriots. Make me understand their patriotism. When I raise the Agniveer issue, the BJP says I'm talking against defence forces," he said, adding he had full respect for the country's defence forces.

"When the youth said they did not like Agniveer, the government responded by telling them that if their faces were captured on camera, they would not get any government job. They were threatened not to come out. I have walked 3,000 km and such youth are meeting me. They are telling me that their future has been ruined," he said, adding only 25% of the new recruits would get regular jobs after a gap of four years. "The rest will be left unemployed."

He also hit out at the BJP-led Haryana government over the state's high unemployment rate as the state topped the CMIE unemployment data released recently.

Rahul criticised he BJP for questioning his yatra. "They ask why I am on this yatra. My answer is because they have spread fear and hatred across this country. "All that their policies have done through demonetisation and GST is spread fear and uncertainty, which they have converted into hatred," he said. The purpose of the yatra, he said, was to unite the people of the country and against the rising unemployment and inflation.

Nitish upbeat as Bihar caste census begins from today

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

A day ahead of the caste-based census starting in Bihar from Saturday, Bihar chief minister Nitish Kumar on Friday asserted that it was of much importance for the state as the socio-economic condition as well as other information of various castes would be known after the exercise.

During his ongoing "Samadhan Yatra", Nitish said in Sheohar that some people tell about their sub castes too and so the related information on this count would also be known. He said that he was in favour of the Centre conducting a nationwide caste-based census but it did not agree.

"After data related to the caste-based census in Bihar will beavailable, we will show what benefits of such a census are," he remarked while adding that the caste-based census would be conducted in the state in an effective manner. After the Centre declined to conduct the nationwide caste-based census, Nitish government decided to do it in the state by spending ₹500 crore from its own resources. The caste census will be conducted in two phases. In the first phase, the number of all households in the state will be counted.

17 Azad loyalists return to Congress, more may follow

'This is just beginning', says elated Cong as Bharat Jodo moves to J&K

PREETHA NAIR AND FAYAZ WANI @ New Delhi/Srinagar

THE Congress has received a shot in the arm after seventeen leaders belonging to former Congress leader Ghulam Nabi Azad's Democratic Azad Party (DAP) returned to its fold on Friday. The move comes as a major setback for Azad, as the leaders including former J&K Deputy Chief Minister Tara Chand, former JK PCC president Minister Peerzada Mohammad Sayeed, Thakur Balwan Singh, considered to be loyalists to the leader, had quit Congress along with Azad. Apart from 17, two more DAP leaders would be rejoining Congress soon, said the party.

The reinduction of the leaders took place at the AICC headquarters in Delhi in the presence of AICC general secretary KC Venugopal, AICC general secretary Jairam Ramesh and AICC in charge of the state Rajani Patil.

Welcoming the leaders back, Venugopal said that it was a special occasion for the party as the leaders returned 'home' ahead of the Bharat jodo Yatra's entry into Jammu and Kashmir. "The stalwarts of the party in J&K, who had left us due to some misunderstanding, have come back home". The Rahul Gandhi led Bharat Jodo Yatra will culminate with flag hoisting in Srinagar on January 30.

Tara Chand and Peerzada Mohd Sayeed

Big setback to Azad as bigwigs desert his party

The move comes as a major setback for Azad, as the leaders including former J&K Deputy Chief Minister Tara Chand, former JK PCC president Minister Peerzada Mohammad Sayeed, Thakur Balwan Singh, considered to be loyalists to the leader, had quit Congress along with Azad. Apart from 17, two DAP leaders would be rejoining Congress soon.

"I consider that they have taken two months leave from the party. Now their leave is over and they have joined back. This is just the beginning. More people will join the party," said Venugopal.

Azad had quit the Congress in August last year. After launching his outfit DAP, he said that he will take part in the upcoming assembly polls.

Speaking to reporters, Tara Chand said that he regrets the decision of leaving Congress, which has given him everything. "I have been a Congressman throughout my life. In between, I took a wrong decision in a hurry. The Congress gave me plum posts and it gave me an identity. This was the biggest blunder in my life," he said. Azad had expelled Tara Chand, Balwan Singh and Dr Monohar Lal from the party for their alleged proximity with Congress.

Tarachand further said that he wasn't aware of the reason for Azad to quit the Congress. After joining DAP, there was an attempt to weaken secular forces, he said. "There is a need for secular forces to come together from divisive forces. However, there was an attempt to weaken the secular forces. It was taking a wrong turn and an attempt was made to take us to a wrong place, that's why we came back to Congress," he said.

Seeking apology from people of Kashmir, India and Congress for deserting the Congress, Peerzada said that it was a wrong decision. "I have not slept in the last two months as I was under pressure from everyone for taking the wrong step after my 50 years' association with the Congress," he said.

600 plaints against dejected BJP leaders

For the first time in Gujarat after Narendra Modi's regime, many state BJP leaders are openly protesting against the party. While many hopefuls had filled out candidature forms, later they were dropped from the BJP's selection list. Party sources claim that some of these dejected BJP leaders resorted to anti-party activities — like helping out Congress candidates to win in the Assembly polls in December. All of this culminated in party state chief CR Patil receiving a whopping 600 odd complaints against its leaders. Patil has now constituted a disciplinary committee — the first meeting of which will be held on Tuesday.

Ex-MLA's letter calls out Cong senior leaders

A spark of revolt has been spotted in the Gujarat Congress owing to its debacle in the Assembly polls — and a little-known ex-MLA's letter has been standing out amid all the chaos. Addressed to almost all city presidents and senior leaders of Gujarat Congress, the leader has blamed the organisation for the defeat while also alleging huge fund irregularities in the elections. Now, the Congress high command has formed a committee to find out the reasons for the defeat in Gujarat — however only after the letter came to spotlight. AICC general secretary KC Venugopal said in a statement, "The committee will submit a report to hon'ble Congress president within two weeks."

Heavy force deployed in J&K dists after 6 killings

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

AFTER killing of six civilians including two minors in twin attacks in a village of Rajouri district in Jammu and Kashmir, authorities have deployed about 2,000 additional para military personnel in the twin border districts of Rajouri and Poonch while Village Defence Committees (VDCs) are being reactivated to fight militancy in the Jammu region.

A security official told this newspaper that additional 18 companies of paramilitary CRPF have reached Jammu.

Comprising about 2,000 personnel, these 18 companies have been deployed in twin border districts of Rajouri and Poonch to instill confidence among the local population, he said. The paramilitary personnel have also been deployed at the Hindus-dominated Dangri village of Rajouri, where militants in twin attacks killed six civilians including two minors and injured over a dozen others on January 1 and 2.

The security official said the companies were brought from outside J&K.

'Insurgency over in Manipur': Shah launches 21 projects worth ₹1,300 cr

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

UNION Home Minister Amit Shah on Friday said the BJP government freed Manipur from curfews, blockades and insurgency, and ensured peace, progress and prosperity in adjoining Nagaland. Shah was speaking after inaugurating and laying the foundation stone of 21 projects worth approximately ₹1,300 crore in Manipur.

Saying that the BJP governments at the Centre and in Manipur tamed insurgency, Shah added that the state is witnessing a new era of peace and progress.

The home minister also unveiled the tallest Tricolour of the Northeast at the INA headquarters at Moirang in Manipur. The Tricolour is 165 ft tall. It was at Moirang that the Indian National Army hoisted the Tricolour in 1944. "Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose and the Azad Hind Fauj led by him took excruciating pains for India's freedom. The unveiling of the tallest Tiranga is a befitting tribute to the legendary leader and all brave hearts of Manipur who fought for our Independence," Shah said.

He added that the Narendra Modi government is committed to honouring the true heroes of the Indian freedom struggle, so that the coming generations can know about their sacrifices.

Among the projects inaugurated by him in Manipur is the historic "Kangla Nongpok Thong" (Kangla Eastern Bridge) in Imphal, which was destroyed during the colonial rule.

Shah later visited the election-bound Nagaland and virtually inaugurated five projects worth ₹52 crore from Chumoukedima. Speaking at a function there, he highlighted the Centre's various initiatives for Nagaland and the rest of the Northeast.

"All states of the Northeast are on the road to development because of Modiji's efforts. The entire region was once known for insurgency. Today, it is known for peace and development. The Northeast is now connected physically as well as emotionally with the mainland," Shah said.

He added that Prime Minister Narendra Modi himself took several initiatives to bring the region to the mainstream.

After Joshimath, 50 houses in Karnaprayag discovered with cracks

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

CASES of land submergence are increasing continuously in the hill towns of Uttarakhand. Residents here, who are already living in fear after Joshimath episode, are even more scared after reports of similar cases surfaced in Karnaprayag. More than 50 houses in Karnaprayag have developed fissures. Incidents of 'land sinking' have also been reported here. A team of expert geologists, including Garhwal Commissioner Sushil Kumar and Disaster Management Secretary Ranjit Kumar Sinha, conducted an in-depth survey of the affected areas of land submergence in Joshimath. Instructions have been given to deploy NDRF team in Joshimath.

During this time, the team conducted door-to-door survey in the affected areas of Manohar Bagh, Singdhar, JP, Marwari, Sunil Gaon, Vishnu Prayag, Ravigram, Gandhinagar etc. of Joshimath. He also visited Tapovan and took stock of the work being carried out in and out of the NTPC tunnel. With a population of nearly 50,000, Karnaprayag is situated at an altitude of 860 metres above sea level while Joshimath is located at an altitude of 1,890 metres. Karnaprayag is situated at a distance of 80 km from Joshimath.

More than 50 families living in Bahugunanagar, CMP Band and upper part of Sabzi Mandi in Karnaprayag are also in panic. Here the cracks in the walls and courtyards of the houses and the hanging roof of the houses are telling the pain of the disaster. As many as 25 houses, including those of Pankaj Dimri, Umesh Raturi, BP Sati, Rakesh Khanduri, Harendra Bisht, Ravidutt Sati, Darwan Singh, Digambar Singh and Gabbar Singh, have developed cracks.

Centre forms panel

The Centre on Friday set up a panel to conduct 'rapid study' of land subsidence in Joshimath. The panel comprising representatives of the Ministry of Environment and Forest, Central Water Commission, Geological Survey of India and National Mission for Clean Ganga.

Crowdfunding: Saket Gokhale denied bail

A court in Ahmedabad on January 5 refused bail to Trinamool Congress (TMC) party spokesperson Saket Gokhale in a case related to alleged misuse of money collected through crowd-funding. Gokhale was subsequently sent to jail under judicial custody. He was arrested by the Ahmedabad Cyber Crime Branch from Delhi on December 30. The FIR was registered on a complaint filed by an Ahmedabad resident who claimed to have donated ₹500 to Gokhale. However, Gokhale later stated that the complainant was a government employee, and that the FIR was registered due to demean him. The TMC leader was arrested by the Gujarat police thrice in December 2022.

Bengal man, son carry woman's body on shoulders

PRONAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

REMINDING the tragic incident of carrying wife's body by Dana Majhi for 10 km in Odisha's starvation-hit Kalahandi, similar heart-wrenching episode shook the people of Jalpaiguri town, a bustling urban pocket in north Bengal, when they saw an elderly man carrying his wife's body with his son on their shoulders in the middle of the district headquarters.

Unable to arrange a hearse, Jaikrishna Dewan, with cash ₹1,200 in his pocket, pleaded with folded hands, but none of the private ambulance drivers agreed to transport the body of his wife Lakhhirani (72). The father and son walked nearly two km in the middle of the town carrying the body of Lakhhirani. Finally, a social welfare organisation came forward and provided an ambulance to transport the body.

The homemaker of a daily wage earner family was admitted to Jalpaiguri Super Speciality Hospitality with respiratory problem on Wednesday. She suffered a cardiac arrest after two hours.

Jaikrishna Dewan and his son with body of Lakhhirani

Ramprasad Dewan said he had hired an ambulance to transport his ailing mother and the driver charged ₹900 to travel the 40-km stretch, from his residence to the hospital. "After my mother died, we requested for a hearse but the hospital authorities did not respond to our plea. We approached the drivers of the private ambulance drivers who were in front of the hospital with their vehicles and they charged ₹3,000. My father had only ₹1,200 in his pocket," he said. Finding no way out, Jaikrishna and Ramprasad lifted the body of Lakhhirani, placed on their shoulders and started walking. "While coming out of the hospital, a section of staffs of the healthcare unit was busy recording the scene and taking photographs using their cellphones instead of coming forward to help us," said Ramprasad.

As the father and son started walking along the road in the town, the photographs and videos of the tragic incident went viral. Members of a welfare organisation came to know about the incident and they rushed to the Jaikrishna and Ramprasad. The body was boarded in an ambulance brought by the organisation and transported to Dewan family's residence.

As the heart wrenching episode drew a flak, the district health department ordered a probe. "A five-member investigation team has been formed to find out why the family did not receive any help from the state-run hospital. An counter to assist patients' relatives operates 24 hours in every hospital. We will find out what went wrong," said an official.

Keep our names secret in bribery cases: Maha officials write to CM

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

THE government officers has put the unique demand to Maharashtra Chief Minister Eknath Shinde that if they are caught while taking the bribe through the trap, then their name and photo should not be revealed till they are convicted in the case. Maharashtra Adhikari Sangathan (Maharashtra Officers Association) writes to Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde asking that when government employees get caught for bribe of even ₹100, his/her name and photograph gets published in the newspapers and establish him/her as a bribe-taker before the crime is proved in court.

"Some of these are traps to frame a government employee and tarnish his/her image. When the matter goes in court and he or she doesn't not get convicted due to lack of evidence or proof. But the government and his family suffer a lot. This should be stopped. Therefore, we kindly request you once a government employee is caught for allegedly taking bribe case, his name and photograph should not be given to newspapers for publiations," stated in the letter. The letter further reads that as per the past records of the bribe cases, the conviction ratio is not good. "In the alleged bribery cases, out of approximately 100 cases, hardly one or two per cent see establishment of the charges against the accused. While 99 per cent government employees suffer without any fault," reads the letter.

Senior government officials said that once the name of the government appears in an alleged bribery case, he or she starts facing stigma.

"The charges are yet get proved but the society starts boycotting him and his family. Many a time they treat him as criminal. This is not good. We are defending the person who has done the crime. But what about those people who are innocent? The innocent employees who are framed in wrong charges should not suffer," the letter asks chief minister.

Gotabaya returns to Sri Lanka from Dubai

COLOMBO

FORMER President Gotabaya Rajapaksa, who was ousted from power last year, has returned from Dubai. Rajapaksa and his wife Ayoma arrived at Bandaranaike International Airport here from Dubai on Thursday, the Daily Mirror Lanka reported, quoting the airport duty manager and spokesperson of the airport immigration department. They arrived on an Emirates flight EK-650 from Dubai, the report said.

During his visit to Dubai, Rajapaksa visited the exotic animal farm called 'Fame Park,' as per newsfirst.lk. Rajapaksa,73, fled Sri Lanka to the Maldives on a Sri Lankan Airforce plane in July, as the country plunged into its worst economic and humanitarian crisis since its independence from Great Britain in 1948.

He then proceeded to Singapore, from where he submitted his resignation on July 14. Weeks later, he flew to Thailand, seeking temporary shelter. Thailand said Rajapaksa can stay in the country for 90 days because he is still a diplomatic passport holder. However, he was not allowed to engage in political activities in Thailand. PTI

Uneasy truce in Kyiv, shelling in some parts of Ukraine on Day One

Kremlin's Defense Ministry says its military returned fire to retaliate against the strikes

KYIV

AN uneasy calm in Kyiv on Friday was broken by air raid sirens that also blared out across the rest of Ukraine despite a Russian ceasefire declaration that Ukrainian officials scorned.

No explosions were heard in Kyiv, but any fighting elsewhere in the country could take hours to become public.

With no degree of certainty whether the truce was holding or not, hours after it was due to have started, residents of Kyiv ventured out in a light dusting of snow to buy gifts, cakes and groceries for their Christmas Eve family celebrations.

Air raid sirens sounded in Kyiv about 40 minutes after the Russian cease-fire was to come into effect, but no explosions were heard. The widely used Alerts in Ukraine app, which includes information from emergency services, showed sirens blaring all across the country. The Russian military alleged that Ukrainian forces continued to shell its positions despite the truce that Kyiv never agreed to. Russia's Defense Ministry said its forces returned fire to suppress the attacks, although it wasn't entirely clear from the statement whether the attacks and the return of fire took place before or after the cease-fire took effect.

Women and children wearing traditional Ukrainian attire take part in Orthodox Christmas Eve celebrations in the western Ukrainian city of Lviv on Friday | AFP

Russian Defense Ministry spokesman Igor Konashenkov reported multiple attacks in the eastern Donetsk, Luhansk and Zaporizhzhia regions. It was not possible to verify the claims.

Putin's announcement on Thursday that the Kremlin's troops would stop fighting along the more than 1,000 km front line and elsewhere was unexpected.

However, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy questioned the Kremlin's intentions. "Now they want to use Christmas as a cover to stop the advance of our guys in the (eastern) Donbas (region) for a while and bring equipment, ammunition and mobilised people closer to our positions," Zelenskyy said. He didn't, however, state outright that Kyiv would ignore Putin's request.

Meanwhile, Germany aims to supply around 40 Marder armoured personnel carriers to Ukraine in first quarter of 2023, government said on Friday.

"These 40 vehicles should be ready in the first quarter already so that they can be handed over to Ukraine," Scholz's spokesman, Steffen Hebestreit said. Germany plans to train Ukrainian forces to use the vehicles, and Hebestreit said experts expect that process to take around eight weeks. AP

McCarthy wins over some rebels but falls short on 12th ballot

WASHINGTON

REPUBLICAN Kevin McCarthy flipped more than a dozen colleagues to support him in dramatic votes on Friday for House Speaker, a major sign of progress for the embattled leader on the fourth day and 12th ballot, but still fail to secure a victory.

The changed votes from the conservative holdouts including the chairman of the conservative Freedom Caucus putting McCarthy closer to seizing the gavel. The stunning turnaround came after McCarthy agreed to many of the detractors' demands—including the reinstatement of a long-standing House rule that would allow any single member to call a vote to oust him from office.

The showdown that has stymied the new Congress came against the backdrop of the second anniversary of the January 6, 2021 attack on the Capitol.

For a few minutes in the House chamber. Republicans tiring of the spectacle walked out in protest when one of McCarthy's most ardent challengers railed against the GOP leader.

"We do not trust Mr. McCarthy with power," said Republican Matt Gaetz of Florida, as colleagues streamed out of the chamber in protest of his remarks.

Contours of a deal with conservative holdouts who have been blocking McCarthy's rise emerged, but was still out of reach after three dismal days and 11 failed votes in a political spectacle unseen in a century.

Arriving at the Capitol on Friday morning, an upbeat McCarthy said to reporters, "We're going to make progress. We're going to shock you." But there's no deal yet, he told colleagues.

The agreement McCarthy presented to the holdouts from the conservative Freedom Caucus and others centers around rules changes they have been seeking for months. Those changes would shrink the power of the speaker's office and give rank-and-file lawmakers more influence in drafting and passing legislation. AP

Pak PM holds talks with IMF chief over disbursement

Pakistan PM Shehbaz Sharif on Friday held talks with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) chief Kristalina Georgieva to break the deadlock over the release of the next tranche of assistance for the cash-strapped country. The contact was made four days before an expected face-to-face meeting between the prime minister and the IMF chief on the sidelines of the Geneva Conference for flood victims. Addressing a business gathering here on Friday, Sharif confirmed he received a call from IMF Managing Director Georgieva and they discussed the issue of disbursement of an already pledged loan. "I told the IMF that we cannot put more burden on our masses. I also urged that the IMF should send its delegation to Pakistan for talks," he said, adding that the delegation was expected to arrive over the next three or four days to discuss various issues. The global lender has refused to issue the new installment of the already agreed loan since Pakistan was not living up to the promises it made when the stalled loan of $6 billion was restored last year.

Pak govt issues dark web advisory to ministries

Islamabad: Pakistan has issued a cybersecurity advisory to all ministries and the provincial governments, urging them to prevent data leaks through the dark web, it emerged on Friday. The dark web, or darknet, is a part of the internet that lies beyond the reach of search engines. Its users are largely anonymous and untraceable. The cybersecurity advisory was sent out after the recent incident of several audio leaks, including, among others, those of Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif and his predecessor Imran Khan. The advisory, titled 'Leakage of Sensitive Data on Dark Web', noted that the dark web by providing complete anonymity has become a 'gateway to the world of crime' and constitutes 96% of total data available on the internet. "Dark/deep web is being used by nefarious mindsets, including criminals, terrorists, Hostile Intelligence Agencies (HIAs) and non-state actors," it stated.

Torrent revises RCap bid, offers ₹8,640 crore cash

Earlier, it offered ₹3,750 cr as cash upfront, balance in deferred pay

SACHIN KUMAR @ Mumbai

IN a fresh turn of events in the ongoing insolvency proceedings of Reliance Capital, Torrent Investments has revised its bid and it is now offering to pay the entire bid amount of ₹8,640 crore as upfront cash.

Earlier the company was offering ₹3,750 crore as cash upfront and balance in deferred payment. Torrent's revised bid is still lower than Hinduja's revised offer of ₹9,000 crore on net present value (NPV) basis. The NPV is calculated after discounting the future cash flows.

"Payment of full bid amount as upfront cash is a good news for the lenders. There was a pressure from the lenders for raising cash portion. Also, the late bid from the Hinduja Group has prompted Torrent to change revise its payment terms," a source told TNIE express.

Torrent had earlier accused Hinduja Group of revising its bid in violation of Challenge Mechanism and got a stay from the Mumbai bench of the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) against Hinduja Group's revised bid for the debt-ridden Reliance Capital. Ahmedabad-based Torrent Group claimed that Hinduja's revised offer, after the e-auction, is illegal and non-compliant. NCLT has directed the administrator not to present Hinduja Group's revised offer before the committee of creditors (CoC). Hinduja Group had revised its Reliance Capital bid price to ₹9,000 crore on December 23, 2022. It had earlier bid ₹8,110 crore in the e-auction that was held on December 21, 2022. On December 23, Torrent issued a protest letter to the administrator saying that it would seek legal remedy if lenders considered a belated offer from Hinduja.

The lenders are now expected to discuss the revised bid by the Torrent Group next week.

The Reserve Bank of India had on November 29 last year superseded the board of Reliance Capital because of payment defaults and serious governance issues. The RBI appointed Nageswara Rao Y as the administrator in relation to the Corporate Insolvency resolution process of the firm. The deadline for the resolution of Reliance Capital has been extended three times so far. In October last year, the National Company Law Tribunal extended the deadline from November 1, 2022, to January 31 this year. According to the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) rules, the administrator had to originally close the resolution of RCL within 180 days, by 3 June last year.

Mkt wipes out 4L cr in first week of CY23

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

THE first week of calendar year 2023 has brought worrisome news for investors as key benchmarks - Sensex and Nifty - fell up to 2% and over ₹4 lakh crore of investors wealth was wiped out from the market.

The BSE Sensex gave up its 60,000-level on Friday to close at 59,900 (down 452.90 or 0.75%) while the broader Nifty50 slipped by 132 points to close at 17,859. During the week ended on Friday, Sensex shed about 1,141.50 points (-1.87%) while the Nifty fell 242.45 (-1.34%).

The market capitalisation of all listed companies on the BSE declined by ₹4.02 lakh crore to ₹279.78 lakh crore this week.

The market has turned bearish as the minutes of the last FOMC meeting indicated that the US Federal Reserve is keeping the room open for more rate hikes to control inflationary pressure.

Investors have also turned cautious ahead of the earnings season after few major firms raised slowdown concerns.

The NSE IT Index fell by 2% on Friday, ahead of the start of Q3FY23 results starting next week. The IT industry is expected to face a tough H1CY23. Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) lost 3% on Friday and was among the biggest Nifty laggards. Infosys fell 1.74% while Tech Mahindra shed 2.54%. "Upcoming key US jobs data is expected to be encouraging which would influence the next Fed's policy. The market already remains sensitive to FIIs selling and IT stocks traded with deep cuts ahead the release of corporate earnings next week as the growth is anticipated to be muted," said Vinod Nair, head of research at Geojit Financial Services. Foreign institutional investors (FIIs) sold ₹2,902.46 crore worth of equities on a net basis on Friday, as per provisional NSE data. As per Christopher Wood, global head of equity strategy at Jefferies, Nifty 50 is trading above its long-term average PE (Price-Earning) multiple and valuations in India have turned undoubtedly challenging.

"If Asia looks better in aggregate on comparative valuations, there is one market where valuations are undoubtedly challenging," Wood said in a note.

JG Chemicals files draft IPO papers with Sebi

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

JG Chemicals has filed a draft red herring prospectus with the Securities Exchange Board of India (Sebi) to raise funds through an initial public offering.

The IPO consists of a fresh issue of ₹202.50 crore and an offer-for-sale of up to 5.70 million shares by its existing shareholders and promoters. JG Chemicals, which is India's largest zinc oxide manufacturer, has filed a draft red herring prospectus with the Securities Exchange Board of India (Sebi) to raise funds through an Initial Public Offering (IPO). The IPO comprises a fresh issue of equity shares worth up to Rs 202.50 crore and an offer-for-sale (OFS) of 57 lakh equity shares by its existing promoter group shareholders, according to its draft red herring prospectus (DRHP).

JAPAN

'OUTPUT GAP CLOSES IN POSITIVE SIGN FOR ECONOMY'

Japan's economic output recovered to near its full capacity for the first time in nearly three years, data showed on Friday, a sign the world's third-largest economy could be finally pulling out of a prolonged, coronavirus pandemic-induced slump. The data adds to recent signs that Japan's economic recovery will help inflation stay around the central bank's 2% target, and could underpin market expectations of a further tweak to its ultra-loose policy, analysts say. Japan's output gap, which measures the difference between an economy's actual and potential output, stood at -0.06% in the third quarter of last year, narrowing its decline for the fourth straight quarter, an estimate by the Bank of Japan (BOJ) showed. It was the smallest drop since Japan's output gap turned negative in April-June 2020, when the outbreak of the pandemic began jolting the global economy, the estimate showed. A negative output gap occurs when actual output is less than the economy's full capacity, and is considered a sign of weakening demand. The output gap is among data the BOJ watches closely in determining whether the economy is expanding strongly enough to cause a demand-driven rise in inflation.

CHINA

RISING RECOVERY BETS ON STOCKS FACE REALITY CHECK

Chinese investors are doubling down on economic recovery bets, with a flurry of new fund launches this week riding on optimism about an end to COVID restrictions, though money managers warn the next wave of market gains will be less broad-based. Both China's blue-chip CSI300 Index and the Shanghai Composite Index have gained more than 2% in a shortened trading week, as markets cheered Beijing's abrupt end to lockdowns and travel quarantine. More than 30 mutual funds launched this week, mostly equity-focused, offering vehicles for recovery bets. Last month sector specific exchange-traded funds drew more than 2.5 billion yuan ($364 million) in net inflows, according to Sinolink Securities, as investors sought exposure to tech, new energy and defence. Hong Kong's Hang Seng jumped as much as 8% to six-month highs this week. But with tourism and hotel and catering shares gaining more than 20% since November, and mainland-China developers' stocks nearly doubling since the end of October, some say the trade is now feeling too crowded.

THAILAND

HEADLINE CPI MEETS FORECAST IN DEC

Thailand's headline consumer price index (CPI) rose 5.89% in December from a year earlier, in line with analyst forecasts, but above the previous month driven by higher energy and food prices, government data showed on Thursday. The index compared with a forecast for a 5.9% rise in December in a Reuters poll and followed November's 5.55% increase. The pace remains well above the central bank's target range of 1% to 3%, reinforcing expectations that the central bank will raise its key interest rate at its next meeting on Jan. 25, to bring prices back within target. The core CPI index was up 3.23% in December from a year ago,the ministry said, versus a forecast rise of 3.28%. For 2022, headline CPI increased 6.08%, a 24-year high, while the core CPI index rose 2.51%. Headline inflation is expected to slow to 2% to 3% in 2023, helped by a high base and a global slowdown, senior commerce ministry official Poonpong Naiyanapakorn told a briefing. The index, however, is set to remain high in the first quarter this year due to a low base in the same period last year, but should not top 5%, he said.

BOND ISSUE

RBI to auction green bonds in 2 tranches of ₹8,000 cr each

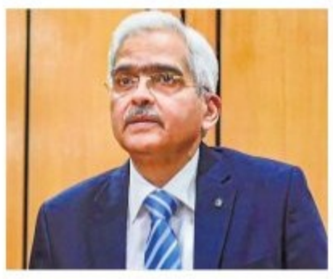
ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

THE government will issue sovereign green bonds for an aggregate amount of ₹16,000 crore in two tranches, finance ministry said on Friday.

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) will auction 5-year and 10-year green bonds for ₹4,000 crore each on January 25 and February 9 of this financial year. These bonds will be auctioned via uniform price auction. "Five percent of the notified amount of sale will be reserved for retail investors as specified under the scheme for non-competitive bidding facility in the auctions of Government of India dated securities and treasury bill," the statement said. These bonds will also be eligible for repurchase transactions as per the terms and conditions mentioned in the repurchase transactions (repo) directions, 2018, as amended from time to time. In addition, these will be eligible for trading in the secondary market. Finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman had announced in the Union Budget 2022-23, about the issue of green bonds as part of the government's overall market borrowings for mobilising resources for green infrastructure. Green bonds proceeds will be deployed in public sector projects, which help in reducing the carbon intensity of the economy.

Taming inflation top priority for South Asian countries: RBI Governor

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai



HIGHLIGHTING the need to check prices, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Governor Shaktikanta Das said on Friday that taming inflation is the top priority for South Asian countries as high prices pose risk to growth and investment outlook.

Delivering keynote speech at an event organised by the International Monetary Fund (IMF), he said multiple external shocks in the form of COVID-related global supply chain disruptions, food and energy crisis following the war in Ukraine and financial market volatility due to aggressive monetary policy tightening have exerted sustained price pressures in South Asian economies, as in other parts of the world.

"For successful disinflation, credible monetary policy actions accompanied by targeted supply side interventions, fiscal, trade policy and administrative measures have become key instruments," said Das. "While the recent softening of commodity prices and supply chain bottlenecks should help in lowering inflation, going ahead, risks to growth and investment outlook may rise if inflation persists at high level. Prioritising price stability may, therefore, be the optimal policy choice in the current context for the region," he added.

During the first three quarters of 2022, food price inflation in South Asia averaged more than 20%. Rising levels of debt, alongside sustained price pressures, pose risks to the region's economic growth and both must be contained, Das said. "The approach to disinflation, however, needs to be mindful of the rising risks to the growth outlook in an environment of deteriorating prospects for global growth and trade activity," he said. The RBI has raised interest rates by cumulative 225 basis points since the start of the tightening cycle in April 2022 in its effort to tame inflation that remained above the tolerance zone for 10 straight months.

Apart from inflation, he said, reducing external debt vulnerabilities, moving focus to highly productive sectors, strengthening energy security, cooperation on a greener economy and increasing tourism should be focus areas for the region.

Govt to penalise any damage to telecom infra

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE government will penalise if there is damage to telecom infrastructure during digging and excavation by anyone.

As per Indian Telegraph (Infrastructure Safety) Rules, 2022, notified on January 3, anyone who wants to exercise a legal right to dig or excavate any property will have to prior notice to the licensee.

"Any person, who has dug/excavated any property causing damage to a telegraph infrastructure, shall be liable to pay damage charges to telegraph authority. The damage charges shall be computed based on such expenses as may be incurred in restoring damages," said DoT in a press note. The government said various agencies often undertake excavation activities wherein underground utility assets get damaged.

CoinSwitch releases proof of reserves; holds ₹1K cr user assets

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

CRYPTO investing app CoinSwitch on Friday said it holds ₹1,083.45 crore value of user assets as of January 6, 2023. Of this, assets held on the wallets is about ₹933.83 crore.

It said users can independently verify holdings. The crypto investing app released its Proof of Reserves so as to be more transparent and gain trust of investors following the collapse of FTX. The crypto market had crashed and set off a chain of liquidations. Firms like Voyager and Celsius went bankrupt and vauld suspended withdrawals. The crash and the contagion that followed, wiped out over $300 billion in value and shook the trust of a large number of crypto investors.

"CoinSwitch is trusted by 19 million users for their investments and we have always exercised abundance of caution when it comes to security," it said, adding 85% of crypto assets are on custodial wallets, and the remaining on exchanges. It holds more crypto assets than its users. On BTC (Bitcoin), the ratio of its holdings against users is 1.71:1. Its ETH holdings are also higher than user holdings, it said.

As per CoinSwitch, it has enough in bank accounts to fulfil INR withdrawals by users 24×7. In October 2021, it closed a $260 million Series C funding from Andreessen Horowitz (a16z), Coinbase Ventures and existing investors Paradigm, Ribbit Capital, Sequoia Capital India and Tiger Global at a valuation of $1.9 billion.

CoinSwitch mentioned in the report that it never had exposure to FTX, its native token FTT, or the sister trading firm, Alameda Research. FTT token was never listed on CoinSwitch app, it said. Recently, it announced the company is diversifying into other asset classes. It is now transitioning from a single-asset app to a wealth-tech destination.

AI-powered ChatGPT new buzz in tech world

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

EVER since its launch in November, ChatGPT(Generative Pre-trained Transformer), a chatbot, has taken internet by storm and amazed users, for its ability to interact, respond to queries in conversational manner, write essays on any topic, and can admit its mistakes.

ChatGPT, backed by Microsoft and developed by OpenAI, an AI company co-founded by Elon Musk. As per reports, OpenAI is trying to sell existing shares that will make the start-up's valuation at about $29 billion. Microsoft Chairman and CEO Satya Nadella during his interactions with developers and CEOs recently both in Mumbai and Bengaluru, spoke about power of artificial intelligence (AI) and ChatGPT. What is ChatGPT? and why has it become an online sensation? Jaya Kishore Reddy Gollareddy, CTO and co-founder of Yellow.ai, said ChatGPT will most certainly contribute to lowering barrier of entry for anyone who is not a professional in fields such as coding and content writing.

ChatGPT, like other GPT models, uses a combination of machine learning techniques, including unsupervised learning, to generate coherent responses to prompts that are within context of conversation, he added. Srividya Kannan, founder and director , Avaali Solutions, said ChatGPT could revolutionise how customers interact with businesses across industries—from retail to hospitality by providing faster, efficient conversations tailored to their needs. Though there are many advantages, it also raises concerns and questions on safety. Since ChatGPT is at early stage, cybersecurity researchers from across the world are reviewing its safety aspects.

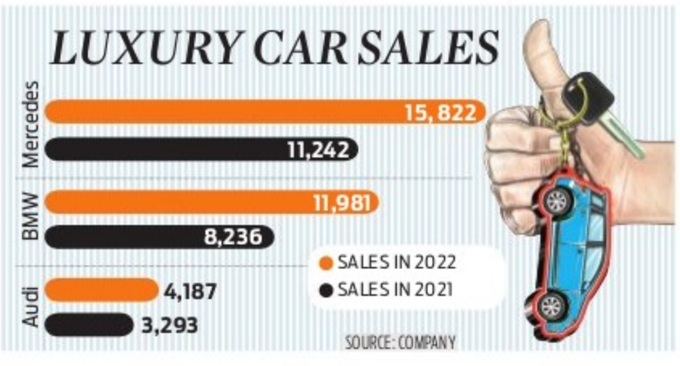
"Check Point Research, a cyber security organisation which has been researching the ChatGPT threat model, said adversaries could build convincing phishing emails using the chatbot. However, in this case, OpenAI published a few screengrabs that classified the user requests as suspicious, indicating it has the ability to recognise when ChatGPT is being misled," said Vaibhav Tare, Chief Information Security Officer & global head - cloud & infra services, Fulcrum Digital.

All about ChatGPT

- ChatGPT uses a combination of ML techniques, including unsupervised learning, to generate coherent responses
- OpenAI, company behind ChatGPT and DALL-E 2, is reportedly in talks to sell shares that would value it at $29 bn
- Microsoft invested $1 billion in OpenAI in 2019
- Led by Sam Altman, OpenAI was founded in 2015
- Its investors include Microsoft, Reid Hoffman's charitable foundation and Khosla Ventures
- ChatGPT interacts in a conversational way

German luxury carmaker Mercedes posts record sales in India in 2022

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi



COUNTRY'S largest luxury car maker Mercedes-Benz touched a new peak in calendar year 2022 as the German marquee brand delivered 15, 822 new cars to customers in January-December 2022 period, registering a strong 41% YoY sales growth.

With this, Mercedes retained its leadership position in the country's luxury car segment, for the eighth consecutive year. Mercedes is followed by another German brand - BMW - which in 2021 also posted its highest-ever annual customer deliveries in its history. BMW sold 11,981 cars and 7,282 motorcycles in CY2022.To maintain lead, Merc will launch 10 cars in 2023 and a majority of them would be in the top-end category (priced more than ₹1 crore). "The biggest growth for us in last year has come from the TEV (top-end vehicle) segment, where we have grown by 69%... We have sold more than 3,500 cars only in TEVs in 2022... that's a lot of cars in the Rs 1-crore-plus segment," said MD & CEO of Mercedes-Benz India Santosh Iyer.

Djokovic advances to face Medvedev in Adelaide semis

Novak Djokovic beat Denis Shapovalov 6-3, 6-4 at the Adelaide International on Friday to set up a semifinal with Daniil Medvedev. The combined ATP-WTA event is a warmup for this year's Australian Open, which the top-seeded Djokovic missed last year after being barred from the country because he was not vaccinated against Covid-19.

Former CWG medallist Sanjita among top athletes to fail dope test

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

GLASGOW and Gold Coast Commonwealth Games gold medallist K Sanjita Chanu is among top sportspersons who have failed a dope test and has been provisionally suspended. The National Anti-Doping Agency has updated the list of provisionally suspended athletes since January 2022 and has added more than 20 new names. Sanjita Chanu, who finished second at the recently held National Games in 49kg, tested positive for the presence of Drostanolone Metabolite, an anabolic androgenic steroid.

Sanjita had won gold in 48kg ahead of Mirabai Chanu at Glasgow while in Gold Coast her gold was in 53kg. She won silver behind Mirabai in 49kg at the National Games in Gujarat last year. Sanjita had failed a dope test in 2018 for testosterone but was cleared of charges in 2020 because of "certain non-conformities". She also has multiple golds in Commonwealth Championships.

"It's very sad that such a top player like Sanjita has tested positive. This will have a very bad influence on the youngsters," Sahdev Yadav, president of Indian Weightlifting Federation, told this daily. He has been quite critical after the senior nationals and had been saying that strict action should be taken on all those caught for doping.

If Sanjita's name is shocking, sprinter S Dhanalakshmi's name seems intriguing. She had tested positive during an out-of-competition conducted by the Athletics Integrity Unit, World Athletics' anti-doping arm, in Antalya on May 1 last year. She was informed about the adverse analytical finding and of her provisional suspension on July 11 last year.

Interestingly, if an anti-doping violation is done within a few weeks of each other one such sanction stands. The AIU had slapped a one-year reduced sentence of three years on steroid violation for admission and acceptance of consequences. Her ban too will commence from the date of provisional suspension. She had competed at the inter-state senior nationals in Chennai in June and finished first ahead of Hima Das and Aishwarya Mishra in 200m.

It needs to be seen if her sample was collected during the meet or whether it was in some other meet. Since the date and where the samples were collected is not known, it is possible the NADA is following certain procedures. Other athletes who have tested positive are sprinter Diandra Valladares and hurdler Gudiya who too had participated at the Chennai nationals.

Diandra, from Maharashtra, won a bronze in 100m at the 2022 National Games held in Gujarat. There are quite a few wrestlers too and most of them tested positive for steroids. Deepanshu, Ravi, Ravi Raj Dhamaraj Chavan, Mahesh KP, Sandeep have tested for steroids. Since their weight categories are not given, it is difficult to trace whether they are medallists in nationals.

There are three kabaddi players Shivam Chaudhary, Rajnesh and Mohit Pahal. Chaudhury has featured in pro kabaddi league as well. Judoka Navroop Kaur is also provisionally suspended for testing positive for steroid (Metenolone). There is also a case of evasion by an athlete.

The anti-doping disciplinary panel will decide on the fate of the athletes after a hearing. In the case of steroids, a four-year ban is usually imposed for a first time offence. While two years for stimulants.

AXAR READY FOR ALL OCCASIONS

In the 28-year-old Gujarat player, India seem to have found a suitable successor for Jadeja

GOMESH S @Chennai

LEFT-ARM spin bowling all-rounder is a role that has been central to India's success across formats in the last decade. And when one talks about that a particular type of cricketer, one name comes to mind — Ravindra Jadeja. Such has been his contribution to the Indian team that, anyone who comes into the team, whenever Jadeja is injured or rested, has found it hard to fill the shoes.

India have handed debuts to as many as five bowlers of such kind since 2013 and not one has played more than 100 matches across formats. The closest they have come to find a successor to Jadeja is Axar Patel. And even for him, it has not been a straightforward journey.

Having made his ODI debut way back in 2014 as a 20-year-old, Axar has to bide his time. For starters, India could not have two same kind of all-rounders in a XI, and what's more, he had to undergo his own share of evolution. Then there were the off-field struggles with injuries as well. When it looked like he was all set to make his Test debut in 2021, Axar missed the first match against England in Chennai due to a knee injury. But that was the last of it. Once he made it to the Test team a week later in the second game, he hasn't looked back.

Since his Test debut, Axar has played 44 matches across formats with 84 wickets to show. More than the wickets, it is the elevation in his batting that has proved vital for him and India. With Jadeja struggling due to injuries, Axar made the most of every chance he got, owning the No. 6/7 position in the white-ball setup. 168 runs in six ODI innings at a strike rate of 120, and 199 runs in 17 T20I innings at 157.93 SR. The ongoing Sri Lanka series has been no different.

Axar Patel | AFP

If the 28-year-old smashed an unbeaten 20-ball 31 in the first T20I, he pushed the limits even more in Pune. On Thursday, when Axar came on to bat, India were 57/5 after 9.1 overs while chasing 207. Although Suryakumar Yadav was there at the other end, it still seemed a very difficult hill to climb. But not for Axar. He sent the fourth ball he faced into the stands. Two overs later, he smashed Maheesh Theekshana for back-to-back boundaries, slowly reviving India's hope. Things took a turn for the good in the next over against Wanindu Hasaranga.

Axar hit three consecutive sixes off the leg-spinner, and just like that the hosts were back in the game. The way he took apart the Lankan bowlers, Axar had reached his half-century in just 20 deliveries. Such was his innings that he outbatted the best T20 batter in the world. Although he got out in the last over and India fell short by 16 runs, his 31-ball 65 was a statement of sorts about what he could do with the bat.

While his innings left everyone in awe, it should not come as a surprise. In the 2022 IPL, Axar hit 182 runs in the lower order for Delhi Capitals at an average of 45.50 while striking at 151.67. He has been consistently delivering with the bat and the team management knows it too. "He is certainly doing a really good job and his batting is coming on (in) leaps and bounds. It's (batting) an area of his game that we have identified, we know that it's important for us to have that and whatever opportunities Axar has got, especially with Jadeja missing quite a lot of cricket, he hasn't let us down in Test cricket, ODIs, whether it's been here," said Dravid.

Winners take all

WITH SRI LANKA TAKING THE SERIES TO THE DECIDER, SATURDAY'S CLASH IN RAJKOT WILL TELL WHO HAS THE LAST LAUGH. A LOOK...

INDIA'S TOP-ORDER

For far too long the Men in Blue have relied heavily on the top-three to do the job in the past. The young players at the top have been trying to give quick starts, but are yet to make an impact in this series. With several players pushing for a place in the XI, all eyes will be on Ishan Kishan and Shubman Gill to see how they fare on Saturday.

THE DEW FACTOR

Just like Pune, Rajkot, too, is expected to be a high-scoring venue. And it would not be a surprise whichever team wins the toss opts to field. It will be interesting to see if India brings in finger-spinner Washington Sundar in place of Yuzvendra Chahal, a move that might also add to their batting depth.

ARSHDEEP ON RADAR

The lanky left-arm pacer was one of the biggest positives of India's T20 World Cup campaign in Australia. That said, he had a day to forget in Pune and would be hoping to turn things around his and the team's good in Rajkot. His death bowling would be crucial for India should they defend a target in the third T20I.

We are slightly in a different stage of looking at the next cycle of T20, so ours is a slightly younger team and for us to play against the quality of Sri Lanka is a fantastic experience. The good thing is that a lot of focus is on the ODI World Cup and World Test Championship, so the T20s give us the opportunity to try out these guys.

Sarfaraz century helps Pakistan to a thrilling draw against New Zealand

AGENCIES @Karachi

SARFARAZ Ahmed continued his red-hot form with a thrilling century to help Pakistan draw a nail-biting second and final Test against New Zealand as the series ended 0-0 on Friday.

The 35-year-old Sarfaraz, who also struck half-centuries in his three previous innings after being recalled for the series following a near-four year absence, made 118 before the last-wicket pair hung on in dimming light for 21 balls to take Pakistan to 304-9, just 15 runs shy of its victory target.

New Zealand took seven wickets on the final day and was within one more scalp of forcing a win. Sarfaraz stood firm for 4 fours and 48 minutes and featured in a second successive century stand with Saud Shakeel (32) after the Black Caps had reduced Pakistan to 80-5 before lunch thanks to Michael Bracewell (4-75) claiming two wickets in six deliveries. Sarfaraz and Shakeel defied New Zealand for nearly three hours before Shakeel fell to a brilliant reflex catch in the slips by Daryl Mitchell early in the final session. Agha Salman made a brisk 30 but was clean bowled by Matt Henry before New Zealand struck twice with the second new ball under fading light.

Pakistan's Sarfaraz Ahmed (L) scored 118 runs on Friday against New Zealand | AFP

Brief scores: NZ 449 & 277/5ded drew with Pak 408 & 304/9 in 90 ovs (Safaraz 118; Bracewell 4/75).

Hasan Ali was trapped leg before wicket by Tim Southee and Sarfaraz was superbly snapped up by Kane Williamson low at leg slip off Bracewell's sharp off-spin, and the Pakistan batter walked off to a standing ovation from the sparse crowd at the National Stadium. No. 10 Naseem Shah and No. 11 Abrar Ahmed then held out, before bad light ended play with three overs left.

N Sriram Balaji (L) and Jeevan Nedunchezhiyan won 6-4, 7-5 | TATA OPEN

Balaji-Jeevan enter final

AGENCIES @Pune

IN-FORM Indian pair of N Sriram Balaji and Jeevan Nedunchezhiyan extended their brilliant run in the fifth edition of the Tata Open Maharashtra to enter the doubles final after thrashing Julian Cash and Henry Patten 6-4, 7-5 in the Last-4 clash at the Balewadi Stadium in Pune on Friday.

They will take on Sander Gille and Joran Vliegen in the title clash on Saturday. Gille-Vliegen beat top-seeded Rajeev Ram and Joe Salisbury in the other doubles Last-4 clash.

Earlier, the French tennis star Benjamin Bonzi registered a 7-6 (5), 6-7 (5), 6-1 victory against the World No. 35 Botic van de Zandschulp to progress into the singles final. Bonzi will face Tallon Griekspoor in the final on Saturday. Griekspoor defeated Aslan Karatsev 7-6 (4), 6-1 in the other semifinal.

PREMIER LEAGUE

Man City beat Chelsea 1-0

AP @London

MANCHESTER City trimmed the gap to Premier League leader Arsenal to five points by beating Chelsea 1-0 after a double substitution by Pep Guardiola paid off immediately at Stamford Bridge. Riyad Mahrez and Jack Grealish entered in the 60th minute and combined for the only goal three minutes later, with Mahrez tapping in after a perfectly weighted cross by his fellow winger.

City only came to life in the second half after a curiously passive display before halftime, perhaps brought on by a confusing team selection by Guardiola that saw a number of players deployed in unusual roles. Guardiola accepted after the game he got it wrong. That's why he took off two full backs — Joao Cancelo and Kyle Walker — at halftime and restored Rodri to center midfield.

Ranji: Karnataka post win, Goa shock Kerala

AGENCIES @Bengaluru

MEDIUM-pacer Vijaykumar Vyshak came up with his maiden five-wicket haul in first-class cricket to set up Karnataka's seven-wicket win over Chhattisgarh in a Ranji Trophy Group C match here on Friday.

Resuming day four on 35 for 2 and with a lot of work to do to save the match, Chhattisgarh were rocked by Vyshak's superb effort. He struck the first blow of the day by removing the first innings centurion Ashutosh Singh for 18. Only Amandeep Khare (50) and Mayank Verma (46) provided resistance as the other batters did not stay long enough at the crease.

Skipper Harpreet Singh Bhatia, the key in the Chhattisgarh batting line-up was bowled by K Gowtham (2/41) as the visiting team faltered. Vyshak struck a crucial blow by bowling Khare. Later, he removed Shashank Singh, Ajay Mandal and Sourabh Majumdar to finish with 5 for 59.

Requiring 123 runs for a victory, Karnataka lost openers — captain Mayank Agarwal (14) and R Samarth (24). SJ Nikin Jose then followed up his first innings effort of 67 with a well-crafted 44 to see the team home.

In another match in Thiruvananthapuram, Goa upset Kerala by seven wickets thanks to an impressive bowling performance, especially off-spinner Mohit Redkar, who finished with 6 for 73 in the second innings. Kerala was bundled out for 200 in the second innings, leaving Goa 155 for a win. Ishan Gadekar (67 not out) and Siddhesh Lad (33 not out) saw Goa home with a 68-run fourth-wicket partnership.

Vijay Shankar (R) celebrates his century with Pradosh Ranjan Paul | PTI

Pradosh, Vijay help TN draw

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @Chennai

PRADOSH Ranjan Paul's magnificent effort of 169 and Vijay Shankar's timely century (103) came in handy for Tamil Nadu to force a draw upon hosts Mumbai on the final day of their Elite Group B match played at Brabourne Stadium. Thanks to the effort of the duo, Tamil Nadu posted 548 in their second essay. Set a target of 212 runs for a win in a possible 32 overs, Mumbai managed 137 for 3 in 24.2 overs after which the two captains agreed for a draw.

Pradosh and Vijay raised 221 runs for the fifth wicket. Starting the day at 380 for 4, the duo was in no hurry to score runs and played sensibly. Tamil Nadu's situation at that time was not only to score runs steadily and have wickets in the hand but importantly consume time. This was to ensure that Mumbai did not have enough time in their chase.

"Very pleased with the effort. We had to play as long as possible without losing a wicket at the same time increasing the lead," said Vijay. Given the target, Mumbai opener Yashasvi Jaiswal made a quick-fire unbeaten half-century but the hosts fell 74 runs short of securing an outright win.

JAN 13-29, 2023 | 16 NATIONS, ONE DREAM

WITH THE MEN'S FIELD HOCKEY WORLD CUP BEGINNING IN ROURKELA AND BHUBANESWAR ON JANUARY 13, HERE'S A BRIEF LOOK AT THE TEAMS THAT WILL BE IN ACTION. HERE'S A LOOK AT THE FIRST TWO TEAMS IN POOL B, GERMANY AND JAPAN...

GERMANY

97 Matches played | 56 Won

BEST RESULT: CHAMPS (2002 AND 2006)

Background

Perennial contenders but have struggled to be among the medals in recent seasons, picking up only one medal (bronze in 2016 Olympics) since 2011. It's their worst run in a few generations. There has been an uptick in recent form, though. They reached the final of the EuroNations in 2021. They also beat Germany in a Pro League encounter in November.

Recent development

There's some cause for optimism that could be the event where they turn a corner and get back to the top table. The well-travelled Andre Henning was appointed coach after the Olympics and since then, they have quietly been going through the gears. Innovation has been the buzzword for the team.

BIG STARS TO WATCH OUT FOR

A nice blend of youth and experience. The presence of Gonzalo Peillat, who recently moved from Argentina, will attract interest. Apart from him, the seasoned Christopher Ruhr and Marco Miltkau will provide the ammunition in the forward line.

Watching Japan move the ball from coast to coast remains one of the more thrilling aspects of the game. They are a counter-attacking side that possess pace in abundance. And in Shota Yamada, they have the sprinkling of stardust up front. He's genuinely one of the best forwards on current form and will look to create more mischief.

"We have a good youth setup in Germany so I am excited for our younger players to play in their first World Cup and our aim is to add to our great history in the World Cups where we have won two gold medals, two silver medals and four bronze medals." — Mats Grambusch, Germany player

JAPAN

28 Matches played | 9 Won

BEST RESULT: NINTH

Background

Beat an almost full-strength India in the semifinals of the Asian Champions Trophy in late 2021 enroute winning silver. It remains one of their best performances till date. It's still a core group that featured at the Olympics at home. Performances over the last World Cup mean they are now the second best team in Asia.

Nations Cup disappointments

For all their improvements, they have frequently struggled for consistency. The proof of this was at the recently held Nations Cup in South Africa where they lost to both South Korea and Malaysia after winning their first game against Canada. They eventually lost the fifth-sixth place match to France.

MADHYA PRADESH
THE FUTURE READY STATE

The state's contribution to India's economy will reach USD 550 billion by 2026 as the country is expected to become a USD 5 trillion economy

—Shivraj Singh Chouhan, Chief Minister, Madhya Pradesh

SETTING NEW BENCHMARKS OF GROWTH IN AGRICULTURE AND FOOD PROCESSING

MP GOVERNMENT HAS UNDERTAKEN SEVERAL INITIATIVES FOR SUPPORTING AGRICULTURE AND FOOD PROCESSING SECTOR BY COVERING VARIOUS ASPECTS SUCH AS DEVELOPMENT OF MEGA FOOD PARKS, AGRO PROCESSING CLUSTERS, INTEGRATED COLD CHAIN AND VALUE ADDITION INFRASTRUCTURE, AND EXPANSION OF FOOD PROCESSING AND PRESERVATION CAPACITIES

Madhya Pradesh has ample land, good infrastructure, and effective governance; and therefore is an excellent investment destination

Narendra Modi, Prime Minister

Madhya Pradesh is revered as the "Food Basket of India" and is primarily an agrarian state, with 47 percent of the state's GSDP being contributed by the agriculture sector. The state is a seven-time winner of the "Krishi Karman Awards," given to the best-performing Indian states in food grain production. Madhya Pradesh is the largest producer of oranges, spices, garlic, ginger, grains, and pulses in India. The state has a high area under cultivation for organic produce and is the second highest producer of soyabean, wheat, maize, citrus fruits, onions, and flowers, and the third highest producer of oilseeds, horticulture, chilly, aromatic, medicinal, and medicinal plants. Madhya Pradesh is the highest producer and exporter of wheat grains for "Sharbati Atta," considered the highest quality of wheat flour in India.

The production of a vast variety of agricultural products is supported by the 11 agro-climatic zones spread across the state. Agriculture production is further boosted in the state due to the ample availability of water through perennial sources, among which are 10 major river basins and inland water bodies spreading across 0.3 million hectares, rivers and canals extending more than 17000 km, and over 60000 hectares of tanks and ponds.

UNLOCKING STATE'S FOOD PROCESSING POTENTIAL

The global food processing market stood at $5.7 trillion in 2021. The sector is projected to grow at a CAGR of 7.60% until 2030, with Asia Pacific being the dominant region in this sector. Emerging markets like India, Indonesia, China, and Malaysia will increasingly drive global growth. Manufacturing and processing will increasingly shift to these markets to be close to a growing customer base. India's food production industry is worth over USD 400 billion and is expected to reach USD 535 billion by 2025-26. India has a strong position in food production globally and is ranked the second largest producer of agriculture and allied sector products (first being China); however, India has a large untapped market in the areas of secondary and tertiary processing of food.

The government of Madhya Pradesh has undertaken many initiatives for supporting agriculture, food, and dairy processing sectors, covering various aspects such as the development of mega food parks, agro processing clusters, integrated cold chain and value addition infrastructure, expansion of food processing and preservation capacities, and forward and backward linkages. The state is working to address the challenges of unorganised micro food processing enterprises through capacity building of entrepreneurs and providing support to farmer producer organisations (FPOs), self-help groups (SHGs), producer cooperatives, and cooperative societies along their entire value chain to enable microenterprises to avail common services under the GOI initiative of PM formalisation of micro food processing.

Madhya Pradesh supports the growth of the food processing industry and has taken several initiatives, such as the setting up of government-funded food parks across 8 locations in the state, 2 private mega food parks, and 4 agro processing clusters approved under APC. Additionally, the state has increased its warehousing capacity to nearly 15 million metric tonnes and has a vast cold-storage handling area with a total extent of 3,54,000 sq. m.

In recent efforts to upskill the talent in this sector, the government of Madhya Pradesh has collaborated with the World Economic Forum (WEF) to develop a food innovation hub. The state already has five reputed institutes dedicated to educating and adding talented workers to the existing work pool across the value chain for this sector. The Government of Madhya Pradesh is captivating the industries through the following incentives, over and above the Government of India incentives:

In the recent past, Madhya Pradesh has attracted a few big-ticket investments from behemoths like Cadbury, ITC, Dabur, Capital Foods and Unilever, to name a few. Much of this can be attributed to strong government support in the form of a favourable policy environment. The government of Madhya Pradesh has provided impetus to the sector by devising pro-industry policies. On the fiscal front, incentives offered to the food processing sector are 1.5 times the incentives offered to the other sectors in the state. The state has increased its exports from 9600 MT worth INR 83 crores in 2005-06 to nearly 1.43 lakh MT of agri products worth INR 1300 crores in 2021-22, with an astonishing CAGR of more than 18%.

- Madhya Pradesh is the Food Basket of India
- 45 Lakh+ Ha. irrigated area with 10 major rivers
- 11 agro-climatic zones producing wide variety of Soyabean, Wheat, Maize, Citrus Fruits, Onion, Flowers and Milk
- 8 Govt. Food parks and 2 Pvt. Mega Food Parks
- Special Incentive Package for Food Processing Industries
- 2 Govt. Agriculture Universities with other agriculture focused institutes
- 7 Times Winner of "Krishi Karman Award"

As part of the One District One Product (ODOP) initiative, Madhya Pradesh has identified 24 agriculture and horticulture-related primary products that are commonly cultivated across the state, including kodo-kutki, bajra, oranges and citrus, custard apple, mango, tomato, guava, banana, betel vine, potato, onion, green pea, chilli, garlic, ginger, coriander, mustard products, sugarcane products, amla, and turmeric. In addition to the food processing sector, dairy activities form an essential part of the rural economy of Madhya Pradesh, serving as an important source of employment and income. Madhya Pradesh is the 3rd largest milk-producing state and contributes 8.6% of the total milk production in the country. Madhya Pradesh Cooperative Dairy Federation, the apex body, alone recorded an average milk purchase of 9.13 lakh KGPD and an average regional milk sale of 6.38 lakh LPD, with a sales revenue of more than INR 1700 crores in 2020-21. The overall milk production in the state was around 17.1 million metric tonnes in 2020-2021. Major players involved in dairy processing are Amul (GCMMF), MPCDF (Sanchi), Anit Industries (Sourabh), and Pawanshree Food International, among others.

A session on "Making agriculture and food processing future-ready in Madhya Pradesh" will be conducted during the "Invest Madhya Pradesh - Global Investors Summit" to be held on January 11 and 12, 2023, in Indore, in which industry captains, sector experts, and government officials will participate to explore more investment opportunities in the state.

MADHYA PRADESH TAKES A BIG LEAP TOWARDS IMPROVING INDIA'S HEALTH SECURITY

HEALTHCARE AND PHARMACEUTICALS ARE AMONGST THE MAJOR SECTORS THAT HAVE SEEN A MAGNANIMOUS GROWTH IN EVERY DISTRICT OF MP IN THE PAST TWO DECADES

HEALTHCARE

The healthcare network in Madhya Pradesh is well established, with 52 district hospitals, 356 community health centres, 1,266 primary health centres, 10,287 sub-health centres, and 51 trauma centers, apart from many big private hospitals. Additionally, Madhya Pradesh, in response to the pandemic crisis, announced a policy to provide fiscal assistance to the tune of 50% of expenditures by industries in plant, machinery, and building up to Rs 75 crore, plus other incentives, for setting up oxygen plants.

The government of Madhya Pradesh has revamped its Madhya Pradesh Health Sector Investment Promotion Policy in 2019 to encourage investment in medical devices, healthcare, and the pharmaceutical industry. This policy provides a favourable atmosphere for private entities to establish or expand in the state through capital and interest subsidies and skill development assistance, among other benefits.

PHARMACEUTICALS

Indian pharmaceutical companies hold an 85 percent share of global pharmaceutical manufacturing. India is one of the largest suppliers of low-cost vaccines to countries all over the globe, and India's Serum Institute is the world's largest vaccine manufacturer by the number of productions and global sales.

The current market size of the pharmaceutical industry in India is estimated to be above USD 50 billion (2020-21) with a growth rate of 10-12 percent. It is expected that the Indian pharmaceutical industry will grow at a CAGR of 12.3% to reach USD 130 billion in 2030.

ADVANTAGE MADHYA PRADESH

Madhya Pradesh is one of the leading destinations for investments in the pharmaceutical sector and is undergoing a massive transformation in the pharmaceutical landscape owing to the emergence of new technologies and more cost-effective and efficient manufacturing approaches with the increased flow of investment in the past few years in this space. The state has a well-connected pharma eco-system with 270 pharma units, 39 API/bulk drug manufacturing units, of which 50+ units are WHO-GMP compliant units, and exports to more than 160 countries. The sector contributed 17% of the state's exports in FY 2021, and the state is among the top 4 states in India in terms of pharmaceutical exports (as per FY22 export data). The state has upcoming pharma parks at Ratlam, Pipalrawan-Dewas, Khawasa-Jhabua, and Hatod-Dhar. A few of the top players include Sun Pharma, Lupin, Glenmark, Cipla, etc.

- Pharma clusters at Indore, Dewas, Bhopal, Mandideep, Malanpur and Pithampur SEZ
- ₹ 300 pharma & medical devices units employing over 1 lakh people
- State-of-the-art Medical Devices Park set up in Vikram Udyogpuri, Ujjain
- INR 10,000 Cr plus worth Pharma Exports from the State during 2021
- Pharmaceuticals exported to 160+ countries. Major destinations: US, UK, Russia, Netherlands, Germany, Brazil
- 73 AICTE approved Pharmacy Institutes providing 9000+ skilled professionals every year
- Dedicated Pharma Industrial Parks proposed for leveraging existing potential in the Pharma sector

MEDICAL DEVICES MANUFACTURING

The global medical devices market is expected to grow at a 5.5% CAGR from $495.46 billion in 2022 to $718.92 billion by 2029 during the forecast period of 2022-2029. India is catching up with the leading medical device manufacturing nations and is making efforts to position itself as a leading manufacturing hub for medical devices on a global scale. Under the flagship programme "Make in India," the GoI has announced the "Production Linked Incentive Scheme" (PLI) to encourage large-scale medical device manufacturing and introduced the "Promotion of Medical Device Parks" scheme. PLI for large-scale medical device manufacturing has set aside a budget to the tune of INR 3,420 crore, and the scheme provides an incentive of 5% on incremental sales (over base year: FY 2019-20) of goods manufactured in India.

The state government has revamped the Madhya Pradesh Health Sector Investment Promotion Policy in 2019 to encourage investment in medical devices. The state encourages investments across sub-sectors, including medical imaging, implant manufacturing, surgical instrument manufacturing, and wearables, among other sub-segments. The state is also developing a 360-acre medical device park, with very cheap land available at Rs. 1 per square metre and development charges of Rs. 20 per square metre per year for 33 years, and electricity available at Rs. 4.36 per unit.

The session will include industry captains, sector experts, and government officials to explore investment opportunities in the pharmaceutical, medical device, and healthcare sectors in MP

WEAVING THE THREADS OF A SUCCESS STORY

MADHYA PRADESH ACCOUNTS FOR 43% OF INDIA'S AND 24% OF THE WORLD'S ORGANIC COTTON PRODUCTION. THE PRESENCE OF 60+ LARGE TEXTILE MILLS, 4,000+ LOOMS, AND 2.5 MILLION SPINDLES DEMONSTRATE THE STRENGTH OF MP IN THE TEXTILE SECTOR

Known as the "Heart of India," Madhya Pradesh is located at the centre of India. Madhya Pradesh has an incredible culture with few similarities to Rajasthan and Maharashtra, though it still has a unique culture of its own. Tribal communities make up 20% of the total population of the state, thereby giving Madhya Pradesh a unique culture that showcases the traditional and ethnic sides of the state. A prominent element of Madhya Pradesh's inherited culture is its traditional clothing. In the modernised world, the people of Madhya Pradesh still preserve their traditional clothing heritage.

A session on "Building Madhya Pradesh's Global Competitiveness in Textile and Apparel" will be organised during "Invest Madhya Pradesh - Global Investors Summit" to be held on January 11 and 12, 2023, in Indore, in which industry captains, sector experts, and government officials will participate to explore more investment opportunities in the state

Madhya Pradesh is home to unique printing techniques, namely hand-block printing using mostly natural colours, batik printing, and the techniques of tying and dyeing known as bandhini. The woven specialties of Madhya Pradesh are Chanderi and Maheshwari silk and cotton clothes. Home to the iconic Chanderi Cotton and the Bagh Print, which have been accorded a Geographical Indication (GI) tag, and the Maheshwari Saree, Madhya Pradesh is historically known for being one of the best cotton and silk producers and is a major exporter of cotton and cotton textiles.

Madhya Pradesh has been a growth centre for the country in the textile and garment sector. The textile and apparel industries have held significant importance in Madhya Pradesh for decades. It is a fast-expanding and growing market, and it has incomparable employment potential.

Madhya Pradesh accounts for 43% of India's and 24% of the world's organic cotton production. MP has witnessed a 60% CAGR in organic cotton production during the last three years. The presence of 60+ large textile mills, 4,000+ looms, and 2.5 million spindles demonstrate the strength of MP in the sector. Indore, Bhopal, Ujjain, Dhar, Dewas, Gwalior, Chhindwara, and Jabalpur have emerged as major textile hubs in the state. The Indore SEZ's ready-made garment industry cluster includes over 1,200 units as well as an apparel design centre.

The state has been able to attract multiple big-ticket investments in the textile and apparel sectors. Many behemoth textile businesses have shown a positive interest in establishing operations in the state, especially in the Indore region. Madhya Pradesh is continuously attracting big investments in the apparel manufacturing industry, and the day is not far when MP will become the largest hub for textile and garment manufacturing.

Since textile and apparel is one of the focus sectors of the state and this sector offers huge employment opportunities for the state's youth and women, the state government has come up with a completely customised incentive package for the textile and apparel sector industries. The financial assistance offered to industries is proportional to the amount of investment made in plant and machinery (P&M).

Trident Group, Raymond, Aditya Birla, Best Corp., Gokaldas Exports, Pratibha Syntex, AVGOL, Indorama, Sagar Group, Bhaskar, Nahar Group, and Vardhman Group are some of the biggest names who have invested and established their unit in Madhya Pradesh. They have been investing repeatedly in the state due to the conducive policy of the MP government, readily available skilled manpower, and fewer man-day losses.

- Entire value chain of textile sector, right from ginning, spinning, weaving and knitting, wet-processing to garmenting present in the state.
- Recipient of highest amount of investment (INR 3,513 crore) under GoI's PLI scheme for the textile sector.
- Policy incentive up to 200% of investment in plant and machinery for garment units.
- 200 + units at readymade garment cluster, Indore with an Apparel Designing Centre.
- Availability of skilled resources - presence of NIFT & NID at Bhopal and IIITDM at Jabalpur.

BOLD & BEAUTIFUL

Pantone recently announced its 2023 Color of the Year as Viva Magenta, which has already created a lot of buzz as it is the most used colour in the Indian context. City-based fashion and interior designers share ideas on how to incorporate it into your wardrobe and home

MONIKA MONALISA

IT'S a new year, with a whole new set of possibilities. And colour experts at the Pantone Color Institute announced its 2023 Color of the Year as Viva Magenta. A shade from the red family, the colour is famous in Indian markets, giving a large bandwidth to fashion designers and interior designers to experiment with the colour.

Fashion

Fashion designer Laxmi Krishna has many ideas to play with the colour. "After two and half years of the pandemic, 2023 is the year we are doing things with a bang. It is a very bold colour. It is beautiful and doesn't need any accessories to make it look larger than life. It is festive and a staple bridal colour," says Krishna.

Krishna points out there is a reason why the colour magenta is one of the most widely used colours in desi events. "It goes well with Indian evening wear. I have used magenta in so many of my creations and it really works for all Indian skin tones," says Krishna, adding that if one notices directors like Sanjay Leela Bhansali, he uses a lot of shades of magenta on his sets to highlight the 'Indianness'.

Home Space

Not just sets, it is a colour that can be used in home interiors as well. Punya Bharath, an independent interior designer, feels that this bold colour has to be used thoughtfully. "I would keep the wall paint neutral and earthy – whites or nudes, and make the space more interesting by having a splash of these Pantone colours in the form of accessories, statement furniture or fabrics like cushions, carpets and curtains." Punya also adds that it is easy to get carried away by trends, and that it is important to have the right balance of colours to make your space feel vibrant and not visually overbearing.

Mane story

If you are someone who goes bold with hair colours, then Geeta Rao, founder of GlossNGlass salon suggests trying out magenta as hair colour. "People love to experiment with reds in terms of hair colour. It goes well especially with the South Indian skin tone," says Rao. Since hair dye in shades of red are quite often known for being bleached, Rao says a key to protecting hair is a careful regime. "It depends on how you use products. The colour saving shampoo, number of hair washes or using a good hair conditioner play a role. For instance, many people are used to washing their hair every day, which might lead to fading of colour faster," explains Rao.

Original Story

Pantone Color Institute has chosen Viva Magenta 18-750 as its shade for '23. The origins of the colour lie in the cochineal beetle, a tiny cactus-eating insect that was once found in Mexico and Chile and known for the rich red pigment it produced. The shade descended from the red family and is expressed as a new signal of strength.

Why is a Cooperative Society not a suitable form of Apartment Owners Association?

ADV BEENA PILLAI

After the continuous hit back from the courts against the Apartment societies (formed under the Societies Registration Act), now the discussion is around the cooperative societies model, which is well known to be controlled by the bureaucracy. Though the advocates of this movement have aired many theories, It's a totally different model where the ownership of the entire apartment Complex vests in the co-operative society and the members' right to own the property is based on the membership which they possess in the Co operative Society.

The Co operative Society is not meant for managing the private properties where an individual owner purchases an apartment unit from a private builder by paying his hard earned money after paying the taxes to the government and enjoys his right and interests therein. Even Though the entire apartment complex is owned jointly, every apartment owner has separate ownership, title and interest over the apartment unit. This article sheds light on why apartment Owners associations should not be formed under the Co operative Societies Act,1959.

In Karnataka, the Cooperative Societies Act came into existence in 1959, with a clear objective of promoting the cooperative movement as under the Second Five Year Plan. There are many provisions ensuring the government control and participation over the cooperative societies as the main objective is to promote the public participation to strengthen the cooperative movement. In other words, the objective of this Act is not that of property management and is not specifically enacted for apartment complexes like the Karnataka Apartment Ownership Act,1972.

There are government restrictions in constituting the board where reservations are made for scheduled castes and scheduled tribes and two seats are reserved for women. The term of the board is prescribed as five years and the government can appoint its nominees to be members of the board. All these may be good for credit co Operative Societies or Banks or other similar societies. But is it wise to induce Government control where the control may be changed based on the political leaderships and formulae?

KAOA,1972 is the appropriate Act for the formation of apartment owners associations in Karnataka, not the Co Operative Societies Act.

The office-bearers of the society and the board may also be personally liable for the activities done for the society. Membership rights are upheld rather than the property rights unlike KAOA,1972.

Registering under the Cooperative Societies Act might be a better option for the housing societies initially formed with a clear objective of acquiring and developing the property for its members like the Mumbai models, but not for an apartment complex developed by a private builder based on the private contracts entered with individuals/ purchasers. Imposing a cooperative society on a later stage will not be suitable and be contradictory to the terms and conditions entered with the purchasers, who invest their hard-earned money based on private arrangements ,after paying the necessary taxes to the government.

The members are free to resign from the Co Operative societies and once they have resigned, the Act will not be binding on them and the cooperative society's rules can not be imposed on the members.

Managed Marketplace Enabling TRUCKERS AND TRANSPORTERS

Bengaluru based LOBB, which started operations in 2015, enables Transporters & Truckers to "Connect, Discover & Transact Freight" in a frictionless manner by leveraging the best of technology (AI & Analytics Driven) and building innovative solutions ground-up, that are relevant at a global scale.

According to Venu Kondur, CEO & Founder, LOBB and Jayaram Raju, Co-founder and COO, the Indian logistics industry has over 10 million long-haul trucks, most of them owned by small truck owners struggling to find the right loads on time. "We aim to empower them through their proprietary Truck Discovery Model, by creating a unique network of fleet, routes, and nodes aligned to demand supply and move to a machine-based matching engine," says Venu and adds that trucks in India run only 13-15 days in a month versus an optimal 23-25 days. "This is largely due to opaque demand and supply availability. Demand and supply traditionally are done through calls in an inefficient manner," he mentions.

Lobb has AI based platform that is poised to disrupt long haul intercity logistics. Their primary focus in the near term is India which is a hugely fragmented market. "India's long-haul intercity logistics is approximately US $100 billion. Our proprietary platform is transforming the industry with its deep intelligence engine and is delivering substantial benefits to all the key players in the market including transporters and truckers," says Jayaram.

LOBB aims to increase truck utilisation for truckers by way of reducing halting and through digital payments, resulting in increasing truckers' revenue by 30%. At present LOBB is operational pan India covering 18 major industrial hubs in India. Today, it works with 900 plus logistic companies and 15000 truck owners. "We experience a growth of 500% in the last 10 months," they mention.

Lobb, through its digital freight brokerage app, is able to help logistics companies hire trucks on demand. This app is available in five languages now and plans are to offer in 12 languages in the coming weeks.

LOBB is India's largest digital freight brokerage platform today making our revenue by connecting truck owners to logistics companies on demand truck hire requirements. We are making significant investments in our ML and Fin-tech products. Our data currently points to 30 new cities with high density and high volumes, we plan to expand. LOBB makes a commission on every trip, and we also makes revenue from other line of business like fleet cards, fastags, LOBB Pay (real time payment solutions), LOBB Digital ERP, and LOBB Money.

FIT BIT

ARDHA NAVASANA ARMS FORWARD

(HALF BOAT POSE ARMS FORWARD)

This is a beginner level half supine pose that boosts energy and hence can be included in Vinyasa Flows. It tones and strengthens the abdominal muscles, spine, and hip flexors. It improves balance and digestion and stimulates the kidneys and intestines.

STEPS

- Do a few rounds of Surya Namaskar, which helps circulating blood to the entire body.
- Then, lie down in Supta Utthita Tadasana (Full Body Stretch Pose).
- Inhale deeply, and lift your upper and lower bodies together on the exhale to an extent that your body is grounded on the sit bones.
- Be aware of your core and firm it. You can feel the abdomen move toward the spine.
- Move the shoulder blades away from the ears. The upper body is in a semi-supine position.
- Spine is slightly rounded at the upper back.
- The chest is constricted. Be conscious to keep the neck in a semi-lock and not fully collapsed. Arms and legs stay firm.
- Keep breathing deep, with full consciousness on the core. If your mind wanders, you'll feel the imbalance. Don't collapse the upper body.
- Stretch the legs away from the hips. Keep the arms also stretched parallel to each other. This helps in maintaining balance. Keep the chin tucked softly into the neck.
- Stay here according to your capacity. Don't push yourself and lose your alignment.
- Now come back to Supta Utthita Tadasana and relax in Savasana.

BENEFITS

- Tones the thighs and quadriceps.
- Strengthens the knee joints.
- Reduces the belly.
- Increases flexibility of the lower body.
- Keeps the spinal cord strong.
- Strengthens the neck and shoulders.
- Enhances body posture and lung functioning.
- Brings the person's awareness to the body's centre.
- Helps to feel strong and mentally and emotionally steady.
- Increases focus and concentration.
- It enhances blood circulation and regulates blood sugar levels.
- Enhances spinal health which is correlated to the nervous system.
- Heals in constipation and diabetes.
- Enhances functioning of kidneys and pancreas.
- Therapeutic for infertility issues.
- Activates the Manipura (Navel) and Svadhisthana (Sacral) chakras.

LIMITATIONS

People with shoulder, knee, or ankle injuries, surgery in hip, spine, knees or chest, balance issues, vertigo, severe back pain, senior citizens, pregnant women and kids, avoid this.

By N Elumalai, PhDscholar (Yoga Science) at Meenakshi Academy of Higher Education & Research, Chennai

1. It originated in the Middle East and was brought to India by Persian invaders. A version of this sweet in Sri Lanka is called Pani Walalu. In Western Asia, other versions are known as Lokma. This heavenly dish is also mentioned in the famous scripture called 'Priyamkarnrpakatha'.
2. This state is credited with the world's highest cricket ground and post office. It is also known as the Apple State of India.
3. Identify this 'Namma Karnataka' dish made out of the following ingredients: puffed rice, carrots, onions, tomato, jaggery, spices, ghee or oil.

NUGGETS

FAST FOOD JOINT BRINGS ICONIC DISH TO INDIA

McDonald's India West and South launched the much-awaited Chicken Big Mac burger. The brand has roped in former Indian captain Virender Sehwag for this launch. The new campaign brings to life the thought, "Chicken Big Mac ke saamne har Big Name bhool jaaoge!" and how legends like Sehwag also pale out in comparison and appear insignificant in front of the globally-iconic Chicken Big Mac.

Orchestra Mysuru will be a special film for me and my friends: Dhananjay

Team Orchestra Mysuru

CE FEATURES

DHANANJAY'S new film Orchestra Mysuru is based on traditional bands, that are famous during the Ganesha festival and Rajyotsava. This film, which tells the story of an orchestra that originated in Mysuru, is hitting the screens on January 12, and the trailer released recently has created further hype for it.

This is a special film for actor and producer, Dhananjay, as he hails from Mysuru and has penned all the songs. Orchestra Mysuru is directed by Sunil Mysuru and stars his best friend, Poornachandra as the lead.

"In the film, the hero writes a song celebrating victory. I didn't know how to channelise the emotion back then at first. So post the success of my film Tagaru, I used the high to pen the song" says Dhananjay, who feels that everything about the film is special. Generally, Kannada movies are not released during Sankranti. But our film is releasing on the occasion," he adds.

A still from the film

The film produced by Ashwin Vijaykumar and Raghu Dixit will be presented by Daali Pictures and KRG Studios. "This is a pucca Kannada film, and a major attraction for all the art lovers," he says.

"In 2015, we as friends together made a song called Baarisu Kannada Dindimava", which was shot in Mysore. The support we got for this song, inspired me to produce the film. Will the boy's dream of singing in an "orchestra" come true? is the basic outline of the film. Like Bengaluru, Mysuru also has a Gandhinagar. There are also many orchestra companies. Our film has eight songs composed by Raghu Dixit. One of the songs picturises the iconic locations of the palace city beautifully," he adds.

With Rajalakshmi playing the female lead, the film also features Mahesh Kumar, Ravi Hunsur, Sachu, Rajesh Basvanna, Lingarju, and Mahadeva Prasad.

Shashi Kumar to headline a Kannada-Tamil bilingual

CE FEATURES

BIGG Boss Kannada Season 6 winner, agriculturist and actor Shashi Kumar, who was last seen in Mehabooba, has now signed a Kannada-Tamil bilingual. Titled Premigala Gamanake in Kannada, the film mostly consists of technicians from Chennai and is helmed by director Vincent Inbaraj.

"The film revolves around modern-day youngsters and their relationships. It will be focussed on the story," says the actor. A schedule has been completed for the film backed by Subu. Premigala Gamanake has Arun Selvan handling the cinematography.

Apart from this project Shashi Kumar will be seen in a cameo role in the upcoming film Sugar Factory.

An effective timepass entertainer

A SHARADHAA

AN eligible bachelor is put through a reality check by his future life partner, and her only condition for him is to lose his virginity before marriage! Although it may seem that filmmakers these days go to any length to make their story 'distinct', Mr. Bachelor by director Naidu Bandaarru is worthy of a watch mainly because its entertainment factor stays up while dealing with a novel message. This elevates the film from being a regular commercial entertainer to a film that blends romance, comedy, drama, action, and emotions in the right proportion.

RATING 3/5

Revolving around Karthik (Krishna), who dreams to get married since childhood, thanks to his mother who projects marriage as the biggest celebration in life, he finally meets his life partner, in a rather uncanny condition. With the help of his friends, Giri (Giri Shivanna) and Chikku (Chikkanna), Karthik goes out of his way to meet the condition of losing his virginity. Enter a girl who seems to be the best bet. While we wait to find out whether Karthik succeeds in his pursuit, the plot goes through a serious twist.

Naidu who has a background in Telugu cinema, succeeds in delivering a feel-good film in his Kannada debut. Handling a delicate story, he has intertwined the narrative with all essentials of a commercial entertainer. The film manages to balance laughter with serious issues, albeit lacking logic at times.

A significant part of Krishna's role reminds us of his own Love Mocktail series. He brings in all-around entertainment and also gets to showcase a bit of his dancing skills. Nimika Ratnakar does what is best for the role by adding to the glamour quotient, while Milana Nagaraj delivers a likeable performance. Comedy by Giri Shivanna and Chikkanna works to an extent. Ayyappa Sharma and Yash Shetty as antagonists and Pavithra Lokesh making their presence felt, but their roles did not have much scope.

A couple of songs by Manikanth Kadri and Sri Crazy Mindz's editing and cinematography elevate Mr. Bachelor, which is an interesting time-pass film.

MR. BACHELOR

I WANT TO MAKE IT BIG IN SANDALWOOD ROOPESH SHETTY

Double winner of Bigg Boss OTT and Kannada Season 9, Roopesh Shetty talks about his winning secret, as he gears up for the release of Manku Bhai Foxy Rani

ROOPESH Shetty is a Bigg Boss winner, twice in a row (Bigg Boss Kannada Season 1 for OTT, and Bigg Boss Kannada Season 9). The young actor and filmmaker is also a noted name in the Tulu film industry.

An excited Roopesh, tells us that he was genuine, and that helped him to win hearts in both shows. "I was my true self there and I played from my heart because I believe that it helps me take the right decisions. This probably helped me have a better connection with the audience outside."

The actor and Bigg Boss winner say that he was not a regular follower of the show, and says the Bigg Boss house felt like a whole new world. "I used to assume that Bigg Boss was scripted, and the contestants had liberties. But once I entered the house, I realised how tough it is. I did not have any connection to the outside world for almost 150 days. This platform helped me adjust to life, and allowed me to learn my own strengths and weaknesses, which ultimately became my life lessons." He shares that he entered the show without any expectations, "I was happy to become the first OTT Bigg Boss winner. But the Bigg Boss Kannada Season 9 on Television was a surprise because I had old and experienced contestants like Arun Sagar, Deepika Das, and Prashanth Sambargi, to compete with. I was amongst very talented people, and I had thought being inside the house for a maximum of five weeks will be a big win, but the love from people made me a winner."

Roopesh Shetty is now looking forward to the release of his next film, Manku Bhai Foxy Rani. The film is set to release on January 13 and the trailer was launched on Thursday. "Being a Tulu actor, I have done five Kannada films, but began recognising onlywith my upcoming sixth film. It was a film, which was done three years ago, getting a release now," he says.

His win at Bigg Boss has led to a lot of expectations for his upcoming film. "It is a feel-good film, set in a village, and has me playing a youth from that region. The content will connect with all kinds of audiences," says Roopesh, "After exiting Bigg Boss, a handful of directors approached me with various scripts, and I will be locking a script soon. I hope to make a big bang with a commercial outing and can't wait to announce the project. I will be revealed it soon."

Roopesh also has a Tulu film, directed by and starring him. "My directorial project in Tulu is one of my most expected films. It was supposed to release in November. But due to my stint in Bigg Boss, the release got delayed. Right now I am working on post-production, and I plan to release it in February," says Roopesh, who wants to make it big in Cinemas. "Bigg Boss as a platform has helped me to get all the recognition I could wish for. Now I have to push my limits and make it big in Kannada cinema," he signs off.

Shahid's Farzi gets release date

SHILAJIT MITRA

DIRECTOR duo Raj & DK's new series, Farzi, starring Shahid Kapoor and Vijay Sethupathi, will drop on Amazon Prime Video on February 10.

Lasting eight episodes, Farzi is described as 'a fast-paced, edgy, one-of-a-kind crime thriller'. It follows a clever underdog street artist's pursuit to con the system that favors the rich, and the cat-and-mouse race between him and law enforcement.

The crime-thriller series also stars Raashii Khanna, Kay Kay Menon, Regina Cassandra, Bhuvan Arora, and veteran actor Amol Palekar. Raj & DK have written the show with Sita R Menon and Suman Kumar. It marks their second Hindi original series for Prime Video after The Family Man.

Raj & DK stated, "After a massively successful association with Prime Video for The Family Man, we are thrilled to return with our next new series! It's one of our favorite scripts, which we have created with a lot of passion and shot through the ups and downs of the pandemic."

Starts off fresh but resorts to old tactics

TAAZA KHABAR SERIES
Cast: Bhuvan Bam, Shriya Pilgaonkar, JD Chakravarthy, Shilpa Shukla, Prathamesh Parab
Streaming on: Disney+ Hotstar

RATING 2.5/5

KARTIK BHARDWAJ

IF only journalists could make a fortune out of news. Disney+ Hotstar's new series Taaza Khabar, starring YouTuber extraordinaire Bhuvan Bam, is about something out of a scribe's dream. A man gets news updates on his mobile before the event even occurs. Talk about lightning-fast notifications.

Vasant Gawde aka Vasya (Bam) is the manager of a sulabh shouchalya and lives a life of poverty and misery. His mother is a housemaid and his father is a drunkard. He is in love with a prostitute, Madhu (Shriya Pilgaonkar), who is being obsessed over by local politician Shetty (JD Chakravarthy). So far, the series ticks all cliché boxes of a Mumbai slum tale. The twist comes when Vasya updates a news app (after an old, homeless woman blesses him below a peepal tree). Now, he knows things before they happen.

Taaza Khabar has an intriguing premise. Initially, it even tries to delve deeper into it. Knowing something beforehand makes one a fortune-teller not a businessman. Vasya understands that and now the question is to make money out of this vardaan, as he calls it, that too so many times it gets irksome. He gets his motley group of slum regulars to join his new 'business venture'. The associates are something out of an eighties popular film teaching Congressional values of secularism. There is Vasya's childhood friend Peter (Prathamesh Parab), local bakery shop owner Mehboob Bhai (Deven Bhojani) and his brainy daughter Shazia (Nitya Mathur), and Madhu.

The makers try to be inventive in the first three episodes. Vasya might know what is going to happen but how and when it does escape him. He might know the future but can't shape it. The 'businesses' are also varied and range from getting a vase--which might contain gold--from an antique store, striking a deal with a quiz show contestant in exchange for the right answer or investing in bitcoin before it shoots up. But the ideas dry out eventually and the show resorts to the tired theme of rags to riches to ashes.

The series is basically what you get if Sacred Games' Ganesh Gaitonde was the protagonist of Gully Boy. The fever of the Zoya Akhtar directorial is high in this one. From the scene where Vasya tries to protect his mother as she is being beaten up by his inebriated father, to him sitting in a black Mercedes, slamming his hands at the steering wheel and screaming in anguish as fairy lights reflect on the hood, all bear marks of the Ranveer Singh-starrer. The Gaitonde takes over as the makers' imagination falters. Bam as Vasya, lying in bed with Shriya's Madhu, even asks her, "Do you think I am god?"

Although the show, at points, feels like a Bam launch vehicle, he still impresses in instances. He shows his acting chops, especially in a scene where he has to lift an old woman who has fainted in the toilet. He expresses disgust and dejection in equal measure and it feels like he is trying to find his feet in a new territory. But it's not enough. In sequences of emotional upheaval, Bam is still green. The runtime also doesn't favour him. Since most episodes are just under 30 minutes, there is no time to build up the drama or unspool character psyches. Once the 'business' becomes centered on cricket betting, the novelty jumps out of the window and the surprise element evaporates.

Taaza Khabar does show promise at the start. It doesn't play up Bam's YouTube image, but rather than portraying him as an actor, it gets entangled in projecting him as the 'hero'. It could have gone the other way and tell a story of how information is perceived, maybe Bam could have saved people from a natural calamity, thwarted an assassination attempt on a politician, prevented a riot or battled fake news. Maybe I am expecting too much.
